The Temptress Ariel:

The Temptress Ariel Greg Bauder, 2004-05-31 The Temptress Ariel is a unique foray into a modern relationship between a naive and sensitive man Don and a streetwise free spirited young woman Ariel who both suffer from schizophrenia Don is lovestruck and pursues the moody Ariel after they meet in a psychiatric boarding home a house in the community which is a recent type of addition to the mental health system Don and Ariel are both haunted by their past loves so much that their illnesses are influenced into delusions about love At the heart of the novel is the quest for meaningful relationships in a world where suspicion manipulation and paranoia create snags that hurt and are often debilitating to the point of hospitalization

Ariel, 1999 Gender and the Construction of Hegemonic and Oppositional Femininities Justin Charlebois, 2010-12-13 Gender and the Construction of Hegemonic and Oppositional Femininities investigates how hegemonic and nonhegemonic forms of femininity are constructed in the social institutions of school the workplace and the media Hegemonic femininities are those that form a complementary and subordinate relationship with hegemonic masculinity and in doing so legitimize a hierarchical relationship between men and women and masculinity and femininity Nonhegemonic femininities include culturally idealized dominant femininities which do not legitimize a hierarchical relationship between masculinity and femininity and gender deviant subordinate femininities Through an analysis of existing empirical research and fictional media the book illustrates the relationship between these various femininities and their relationship with masculinity T.S.
