

B♭ CLARINET

Dorset Wind Music

Two Unaccompanied Pieces for Solo Clarinet

Both of these pieces feature the use of the Upper Mordent and an example of this style is shown in the opening section of each number

1. Les Niais de Sologne

J-P Rameau (1683-1746)

arr Rodney Parker

Allegro moderato

The image shows the first two staves of the musical score for 'Les Niais de Sologne'. The top staff begins with a treble clef, a common time signature, and a key signature of one flat (Bb). The tempo is marked 'Allegro moderato'. The first measure contains a triplet of eighth notes. The second staff starts with a dynamic marking of 'f-p' and continues with a similar triplet pattern. Both staves feature several triplet markings over groups of notes. The score is overlaid with a large, diagonal 'Preview' watermark.

Music Traditions, Cultures, and Contexts Robin Elliott, Gordon E. Smith, 2010-04-19 Music Traditions Cultures and Contexts is a tribute to the ethnomusicologist Beverley Diamond in recognition of her outstanding scholarly accomplishments. The volume includes essays by leading ethnomusicologists and music scholars as well as a biographical introduction. The book's contributors engage many of the critical themes in Diamond's work including musical historiography, musical composition in historical and contemporary frameworks, performance in diverse contexts, gender issues, music and politics, and how music is nested in and relates to broader issues in society. The essays raise important themes about knowing and understanding musical traditions and music itself as an agent of social, cultural, and political change. Music Traditions Cultures and Contexts will appeal to music scholars and students as well as to a general audience interested in learning about how music functions as social process as well as sound.

The Finale in Western Instrumental Music Michael Talbot, 2001. The knowledge that finales are by tradition and perhaps also necessarily different from other movements has been around a long time but this is the first time that the special nature of finales in instrumental music has been examined comprehensively and in detail. Three main types of finale labelled relaxant, summative, and valedictory are identified. Each type is studied closely with a wealth of illustration and analytical commentary covering the entire period from the Renaissance to the present day. The history of finales in five important genres: suite, sonata, string quartet, symphony, and concerto is traced and the parallels and divergences between these traditions are identified. Several wider issues are mentioned including narrativity, musical rounding, inter-movement relationships, and the nature of codas. The book ends with a look at the finales of all Shostakovich's string quartets in which examples of most of the types may be found.
