Rotoff, Roman Yereniuk, Stella Hryniuk, 1990-04-01 Ukrainians first came to Canada a century ago seeking a new life on the western prairies. They brought with them an ancient and rich cultural tradition deeply rooted in Christianity. The most visible symbol of this tradition is the Ukrainian church with its distinctive cupolas. As soon as the settlers were established in the new land they began to reshape their environment by building churches in the styles they remembered from their homeland. In this richly illustrated volume the authors trace the continuity of tradition in architecture, art, and community life from Ukraine to the parishes of the Manitoba prairie. In a detailed examination of the exteriors and interiors of forty-nine churches, the book establishes a typology of Ukrainian church designs. Biographies of the architects, master builders, and artists are included along with a guide to the art and architecture of a Ukrainian church. The Church association monthly intelligencer, 1869. The Worship of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the Church of Rome James Endell Tyler, 1844. A Catholic dictionary, by W.E. The artistic creativity of the region emerges as extraordinarily rich and colorful with a variety of heterogeneous, hybrid, and intermingled characteristics. The book questions the extent to which the descriptor Genoese can be applied to the settlements' artistic production. Quirini Popławski demonstrates that despite entrenched views of these colonies as centres of Italian and Latin culture, it was in fact Greek and Armenian art that was of greater importance.
