Managing Educational Tourism Brent W. Ritchie, 2003-01-09 Increasingly tourists are seeking learning and educational holidays This interest has led to the provision of tourism product with some form of learning or education as an integral component including cultural heritage tourism and ecotourism The growth of offshore education and lifelong learning has stimulated cross border movement for language learning school excursions and university student travel Reflecting this growth in educational tourism types the author outlines the main forms of educational tourism their demand and supply characteristics their impacts and the management issues associated with them taking a holistic systems based perspective The book argues that without adequate research and appropriate management of educational forms of tourism the potential regional development impacts and personal learning benefits will not be maximised The book highlights the need for collaboration and networking between both the tourism and education industries to adequately manage the issues surrounding the growth in educational tourism

Virtual Reality in Higher Education Darrel W. Staat, 2021-08-11
Virtual Reality in Higher Education Instruction for the Digital Age brings to the foreground how Virtual Reality using headsets in educational and training programs is already beginning to be used in higher education The book is the result of research to determine where and how virtual reality is being used in higher education recruitment and athletics The book cites specific examples and methods used in teaching training and recruitment that would be of interest to faculty and administrators in community colleges and universities The book is written to help faculty to understand the potential of VR for education administrators to see possibilities for student recruitment and athletic directors and sports program coaches to determine the advantage of new avenues for successful training It is critical that faculty and administrators investigate the potential of VR for teaching learning recruitment and athletics This technology provides an immersive method that could create serious changes in how faculty teach students learn institutions recruit and athletic programs train
