Visible Words John Hanbruy Angus Sparrow,1964      Visible Words John Sparrow,2011-02-17 Mr Sparrow traces the development of the inscription as a literary form in Renaissance and post Renaissance Europe He defines the literary inscription as a text composed with a view to its being presented in lines of different lengths the lineation contributing to or enhancing the meaning so that someone who does not see it actually or in the mind s eye but only hears it read aloud misses something of the intended effect Mr Sparrow attributes the Renaissance concern with the visual presentation of words to the profound interest in epigraphy aroused by the rediscovery of classical inscriptions This interest was felt mainly by scholars and writers but it extended to architects painters sculptors and designers of monuments all of whom incorporated inscriptions in their work      Handbook of Classical Rhetoric in the Hellenistic Period, 330 B.C. - A.D. 400 Stanley E. Porter,2022-06-13 This detailed reference work provides a comprehensive and wide ranging introduction to classical rhetoric as it was practised in the hellenistic period 330 B C A D 400 In three sections it provides a thorough description and analysis of the standard categories of thought terminology and theoretical and historical developments of classical rhetoric as well as providing useful bibliographies The three sections of essays define the major categories of rhetoric analyze rhetorical practice according to genre of writing and treat individual writers in the rhetorical tradition 27 international scholars from a wide range of backgrounds have contributed to this high quality publication which provides an state of the art overview of the current research and will form the basis of future explorations Students of the rhetoric of the New Testament the hellenistic period the classical period and the patristic era will all find this volume useful and insightful as will those with general interests in these subjects This publication has also been published in hardback no longer available      Querying the Medieval Ronald Inden,Jonathan Walters,Daud Ali,2000-06-08 Indologist Ronald Inden has in the past raised questions about the images of a traditional or medieval India deployed by colonial scholars and rulers Orientalists and has also argued that a history of early medieval India very different from both the colonial and nationalist accounts could be written This volume is designed as an important first step towards that goal The authors look closely at three genres of texts that have been crucial to the representations of precolonial India All three essays challenge not only colonialist scholarship but the attempts by religious nationalists to identify Hinduism as the essence of national identity in India and Buddhism as the essence of nationality in Sri Lanka      Worlds Made by Words Anthony Grafton,2009 Italian cinemas after the war were filled by audiences who had come to watch domestically produced films of passion and pathos These highly emotional and consciously theatrical melodramas posed moral questions with stylish flair redefining popular ways of feeling about romance family gender class Catholicism Italy and feeling itself The Operatic and the Everyday in Postwar Italian Film Melodrama argues for the centrality of melodrama to Italian culture It uncovers a wealth of films rarely discussed before including family melodramas the crime stories of neorealismo popolare and opera films and provides interpretive frameworks that position them in wider debates on aesthetics and society The book also considers the well established topics of realism and arthouse auteurism and re thinks film history by investigating the presence of melodrama in neorealism and post war modernism It places film within its broader cultural context to trace the connections of canonical melodramatists like Visconti and Matarazzo to traditions of opera the musical theatre of the sceneggiata visual arts and magazines In so doing it seeks to capture the artistry and emotional experiences found within a truly popular form Language in the Visual Arts Leslie Ross,2014-07-02 This book discusses text and image relationships in the history of art from ancient times to the contemporary period across a diversity of cultures and geographic areas Focusing on the use of words in art and words as art forms thematic chapters include Pictures in Words Words in Pictures Word Picture Puzzles Picture Word Puzzles Words as Images The Power of the Word and Monumental and Moving Words Chapter subsections further explore cross cultural themes Examining text and image relationships from the obvious to the elusive the puzzling to the profound the minor to the major the book demonstrates the diverse ways in which images and writing have been combined through the ages and explores the interplay between visual and written communication in a wide range of thought provoking examples A color insert is included Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here The Studiolo of Urbino: An Iconographic Investigation Luciano Cheles,1986 Le Recueil Des Inscriptions, 1558 Etienne Jodelle,1972 Greek Writing in Its Aesthetic Context Alexandra Pappas,2004 Quoting Death in Early Modern England Scott L. Newstok,2009-01-15 An innovative study of the emergent Renaissance practice of making epitaphic gestures within other English genres This book argues that the post Reformation preoccupation with textual remembrance led to a remarkable proliferation of epitaphs beyond the putative tomb A poetics of quotation uncovers the ways in which writers have recited these texts within new contexts This book modifies conventional genre studies by detailing the situatedness of quoted text a compositional habit that became markedly prevalent with the continued expansion of printing and literacy in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries BOOK JACKET The Book Collector ,2012 Publisher's Monthly ,1991 Studies of Petrarch and His Influence Joseph Burney Trapp,2003 The fifteenth and sixteenth century movement which led to a European revaluation of social political ethical literary artistic and intellectual experience and which we know as the Renaissance was given its decisive early impetus from Italy in the fourteenth by Francesco Petrarca 1304 1374 JEGP, Journal of English and Germanic Philology Gustaf E. K. Heninger,1989 Sidney and Spenser reached their artistic maturity as the 1580s began While they responded in individualistic ways to the cultural formation then prevailing they set the course of literature in England for centuries to come With these poets allegory transmutes to fiction Heninger's study is concerned centrally with this transformation and with the historical circumstances that encouraged and sustained it For English writers this change was largely effected by the adoption of Aristotelian imitation as the quiddity of the poetical art As its distinctive feature poetry no longer reflects heavenly beauty or echoes cosmic harmony it isn't rhyming and versing that make a poet Sidney says Instead literature becomes a depictive art a narrative with semantic content The new poetry created speaking pictures and it acquired this ability to address simultaneously both ear and eye by virtue of its medium Language allows poetry to display aural and visual properties allying it with music on the one hand and with painting on the other So this study investigates Renaissance notions of how language engages a reader with both musical and painterly effects By assimilating the principles of Aristotelian mimesis Sidney devises a poetics that assigns meaning to the verbal system itself Writing is making
