Vision For Growth Spck:

Changing Worlds Robin Gill, 2002-10-01 Churches everywhere are experiencing change In his thought provoking book Professor Robin Gill identifies the main challenges facing the church and reflects on how Christians should respond He first studies the immense moral challenges of our rapidly changing world religion and the environment the arms trade including reflection on the global situation since the attack on New York on 11 September 2001 media ethics and the Lambeth Conference and sexual ethics The second part focuses on the changing patterns of churchgoing and addresses anxieties about churchgoing decline in the West which run parallel with claims about rapid church growth elsewhere The third part looks at changes in theological education The author argues for greater honesty in the church and for a judicious use of both theology and sociology which would equip Christians to face the enormous challenges of our world today

The 'Empty' Church Revisited Robin Gill, 2017-07-05 When did churches start to appear more empty than full and why The very physicality of largely empty churches and chapels in Britain plays a powerful role in popular perceptions of religion Empty churches are frequently cited in the media as evidence of large scale religious decline The Empty Church Revisited presents a systematic account of British churchgoing patterns over the last two hundred years uncovering the factors and the statistics behind the considerable process of decline in church attendance Dispelling as myth the commonly held views that the process of secularization in British culture has led to the decline in churchgoing and resulted in the predominantly empty churches of today Gill points to physical factors economics and issues of social space to shed new light on the origins of empty churches This thoroughly updated edition of Robin Gill s earlier work The Myth of the Empty Church presents new data throughout to explore afresh the paradox of church building activity in a context of decline the patterns of urbanisation followed by sub urbanisation affecting churches changes in patterns of worship and changes within the sociology of religion in the last decade

Kingdom Buildings Kenneth Padley, 2025-05-21 Kingdom Buildings reveals the overlooked potential of church buildings and grounds as tools for mission and growth Too often seen as burdens this practical and inspiring guide helps church communities rediscover them as gifts spaces that can enrich both congregational life and the wider community Blending theology ecclesiology and hands on advice Kingdom Buildings offers both a fresh vision and practical steps to tackle even the most daunting challenges It shows how small affordable changes can spark momentum and create lasting impact while also guiding readers to make wise long term decisions for the good of future generations With thoughtful attention to issues such as accessibility carbon reduction and ecological stewardship especially within the unique constraints of heritage sites this book equips churches to care for their buildings as faithful stewards and mission minded hosts

God at Ground Level Peter Cruchley-Jones, 2008 This book is a collection of essays offering analysis of the experience of contemporary Christianity in the UK from below from the perspectives of real situations and people The authors come from a range of traditions evangelical to liberal to Catholic but all from within the practise and discipline of missiology anthropology God at

Ground Level aims to discern new insights into the contemporary missiological theological and ecclesiological debate of today's church. The crisis of contemporary Christianity is certainly recognised for it is experienced deeply by many of the contributors to this project. But each contributor also reveals signs of adaptation to the demands laid on contemporary Christianity that challenge the dominant narrative about church decline. This gives way to a lively thoughtful and sometimes controversial series of perspectives on God and contemporary church that gives us another route into the debates of Christianity, Western culture and Mission. The Expository Times, 1920 The Athenaeum, 1892 Literature, 1899

Human Rights & Human Wrongs John R. W. Stott, 1999. Human Rights and Human Wrongs shows you that it is our responsibility to demonstrate Christ's love through participation in social action. John Stott begins this discussion by documenting the evangelical heritage of service that originated with the ministry of Jesus Christ and the apostles and culminated with the social reforms and economical improvements of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. He then examines today's critical issues and stresses the urgent need to meet the crises of our time with a Christian mind.

Developing Faithful Ministers Tim Ling, 2013-01-25. Developing Faithful Ministers aims to support the work of all those involved in supervision and training relationships within the Church. The Church recognising its call to serve God and the nation seeks to equip and develop its ministers to face the challenge of ministry in a society at the threshold of Christendom that is in a mission context. It is a context where both the general public and the institutional church have significant expectations of those in ministry. Indeed there is now an expectation of demonstrable capability prior to being licensed to any form of permanent tenure. The demand for more professional demonstrably capable mission able and collaborative licensed ministers places particular weight on the efficacy of the initial training relationship. Developing Faithful Ministers seeks to support those who find themselves in these relationships by offering both models of good practice and sustained theological reflection on what these drivers mean for developing ministry. The Athenæum, 1919 Revival and Resurgence in Christian History Ecclesiastical History Society. Summer Meeting, 2008. The revival and stimulation of ideas and practices are the focus of this wide ranging collection. Church Missionary Intelligencer and Record, 1905 Athenaeum, 1892

London Quarterly Review, 1920 The Bookseller, 1917 The Academy, 1894 The Publisher and Bookseller, 1928. Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom. Illustrated Notes on English Church History ... Charles Arthur Lane, 1898 The English Catalogue of Books ... Sampson Low, 1919.
