Visionary Architecture From Babylon To Virtual Reality:

Visionary Architecture Christian Werner Thomsen,1994 In short it is a book about those who have endeavored to preserve creativity in their profession and whose innovative ideas have led in practical terms to the development of new architectural concepts new ways of living and working and new aesthetic forms The Practice of Modernism John R. Gold,2007-06-13 In this sequel to his widely acclaimed book The Experience of Modernism 1997 John Gold continues his detailed enquiry into the Modern Movement's involvement in urban planning and city design Making extensive use of information gained from hours of in depth interviews with architects of the time this new book examines the complex relationship between vision and subsequent practice in the saga of postwar urban reconstruction The Practice of Modernism traces the personal institutional and professional backgrounds of the architects involved in schemes for reconstruction and replanning deals directly with the progress of urban transformation focusing on the contribution that modern architects and architectural principles made to town centre renewal and social housing highlights how the exuberance of the 1960s gave way to the profound reappraisal that emerged by the early 1970s Written by an expert this is a key book on the planning aspects of the modernist movement for architectural historians urban geographers planners and all concerned with understanding the recent history of the contemporary city Postcards from the Trenches Allyson Booth,1996 She links for example the modernist representation of an unstable self to soldiers familiarity with corpses the modernist mistrust for fact to the competing nationalist discourses of August 1914 and the modernist description of buildings as having shaken off the past to a desire to forget the war Booth argues that the dislocations of war often figure centrally in modernist forms even when the war itself seems peripheral to modernist content NATØ: Narrative Architecture in Postmodern London Claire Jamieson,2017-01-20 Chronicling the last radical architectural group of the twentieth century NAT Narrative Architecture Today who emerged from the Architectural Association at the start of the 1980s this book explores the group's work which echoed a wider artistic and literary culture that drew on the specific political social and physical condition of 1980s London It traces NAT's identification with a particular stream of post punk postmodern expression a celebration of the abject an aesthetic of entropy and a do it yourself provisionality NAT has most often been documented in reference to Nigel Coates the instigator of NAT which has led to a one sided one dimensional record of NAT's place in architectural history This book sets out a more detailed contextual history of NAT told through photographs drawings and ephemera restoring a truer polyvocal narrative of the group's ethos and development Shapers of Urban Form Peter J. Larkham,Michael P. Conzen,2014-06-27 People have designed cities long before there were urban designers In Shapers of Urban Form Peter Larkham and Michael Conzen have commissioned new scholarship on the forces people and institutions that have shaped cities from the Middle Ages to the present day Larkham and Conzen collect new essays in urban morphology the people centered predecessor to contemporary theories of top down urban design Shapers of Urban Form focuses on the social
