Report of Committee on Modern Languages United States. Office of Education. Committee on Modern Languages,1899

Botswana Herman M. Batibo,Birgit Smieja,2000 The need of the national language Setswana to participate actively in society politics and democratisation as both national language and lingua franca of Botswana has caused language domination and suffocation on the part of the 25 or so minority languages As a result these languages are now going through a process of language shift and death Consequently their cultures too suffer great losses in order to keep pace with the mainstream society The aim of the book is threefold a to inform the large public both local and international about the sociolinguistic and related issues regarding the minority languages of Botswana b to provide facts about the state and future trends of the minority languages in order to sensitise the public and the relevant authorities about the issues involved and c to present ideas and insights in order to stimulate academic debates on the minority languages Linguists from Botswana as well as from Europe and U S A present their latest field research findings to shed light on the present situation of the minority languages

Interaction and Cognition in Linguistics Carlos Inchaurralde,Celia Florén,2003 The present book is a collection of selected papers

held at the 11th Susanne H bner Seminar from the 26th of February to the 1st of March 2001 in Zaragoza Spain The papers included in this volume address several issues connected with the relationship between what seems to be external and internal in human language usage By external is meant here communication and more concretely interaction by internal processing and conceptualization that is to say cognition These two sides coincide with the subject matter of two of the most active paradigms of linguistic research nowadays pragmatics and cognitive linguistics and the two main sections of this volume reflect two possible entry points to this dichotomy The first section Interacting clearly puts the emphasis on interaction itself whereas the second section The system behind is concerned with metaphor metonymy and categorization processes

American Book Publishing Record ,1985 Cultural Conceptualisations in West African English Frank Polzenhagen,2007 This book is an application of the cognitive linguistic framework to the study of the New Englishes specifically West African English Its theoretical part provides an outline of the analytical tools in particular conceptual metaphor metonymy and cultural model theory Using corpus linguistic methods and incorporating research from neighbouring social sciences the empirical part explores culture specific conceptualisations and their linguistic expression in the variety under analysis The findings attest to the cultural contextualisation of the English language in the West African setting The last part of the book critically discusses the current debate on the role and spread of English as a global language from a cognitive linguistic and discourse analytical perspective
