What You Can Do To Help The Homeless:

What You Can Do to Help the Homeless Thomas L. Kenyon, National Alliance to End Homelessness, 1991 Describes dozens of projects for individuals families businesses and schools to get involved in helping homeless people and in preventing homelessness HELPING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES DEVELOP SOCIAL SKILLS, ACADEMIC LANGUAGE AND LITERACY THROUGH LITERATURE STORIES, VIGNETTES, AND OTHER ACTIVITIES Duran, Elva, Gonzales, Rachael, Park, Hyun-Sook, 2016-12-05 This social skills manual will present to teachers and parents lesson plans complete with literature stories vignettes and other activities to help students with disabilities develop social skills in all their environments The general skills and social skills at work are presented within detailed lesson plans that place emphasis on the vocabulary and the different lesson plan objectives that are essential to each lesson These generic skills will enhance an individual's ability to access social contexts in which healthy engagement can occur and improve the ability to cope with challenging tasks that are encountered in daily living The diversity of instructional techniques used to facilitate content mastery include guided and differentiated instruction modeling facilitating analysis and reflection of situations involving the appropriate and inappropriate use of key skills presentation and discussion of positive and negative consequences of each skill independent learning and connecting lessons learned to the central idea of the skills being taught These strategies are arranged in a logical order wherein the material mastered via one technique builds upon prior ones and provides a context for the next one in the instructional sequence In most cases it seems highly likely that students who are led through this sequence could not fail to acquire important information about understanding and applying these skills to their own lives This important new resource will enable professionals to be more effective in assisting students with disabilities in negotiating the many challenges in making the transition from school to the world of adult living Almost Home Kevin Ryan, Tina Kelley, 2012-08-21 Inside the lives of homeless teens moving stories of pain and hope from Covenant House Almost Home tells the stories of six remarkable young people from across the United States and Canada as they confront life alone on the streets Each eventually finds his or her way to Covenant House the largest charity serving homeless and runaway youth in North America From the son of a crack addict who fights his own descent into drug addiction to a teen mother reaching for a new life their stories veer between devastating and inspiring as they each struggle to find a place called home Includes a foreword by Newark Mayor Cory Booker Shares the personal stories of six homeless youths grappling with issues such as drug addiction family violence prostitution rejection based on sexual orientation teen parenthood and aging out of foster care into a future with limited skills and no support system Gives voice to the estimated 16 million young people in the United States and Canada who run away or are kicked out of their homes each year Includes striking photographs stories of firsthand experiences mentoring and working with homeless and troubled youth and practical suggestions on how to get involved Discusses the root causes of homelessness among young people and policy recommendations to address them Provides action steps readers can take to fight youth homelessness and assist individual homeless young people Written by Kevin Ryan president of Covenant House and Pulitzer Prize nominee and former New York Times writer Tina Kelley Inviting us to get to know homeless teens as more than an accumulation of statistics and societal issues this book gives a human face to a huge but largely invisible problem and offers practical insights into how to prevent homelessness and help homeless youth move to a hopeful future For instance one kid in the book goes on to become a college football player and counselor to at risk adolescents and another becomes a state kickboxing champion All the stories inspire us with victories of the human spirit large and small A portion of the proceeds from the sale of each book will help support kids who benefit from Covenant House s shelter and outreach services
