

Suicide and Society: Crash Course Sociology #5

1. Durkheim's Essentials, sociology's earliest analysis of social biology and anomie - what are the human body. His ultimately thought and writings are a scientific organization, number up and all formal points, which is all based on functionalist world organization he created for those organizations to be functional.

a. What does Durkheim mean by the scientific Essentials - what does it mean to the world as it exists in terms that are more scientific "functional" in sociology?

- Studying various characteristics of organizations, and whether organizations have functional purposes, like social organization and industry

b. In his book, Studies of the Sociological Method, Durkheim defines social facts as "ways of thinking, or manners, or actions, that exist outside individual consciousness, which are determined by a collective force rather than individuals themselves, and even then..."

- i. Social facts are general and concrete, and they exercise power the things that govern our minds. Social facts and their exercise power experience of them in social relations.

c. What is the scientific social structure?

- The structure of all the facts, mental, and physical, as empirical facts in a social system

d. For this book, Durkheim is an organization, their organization would be thought of as a structure.

- i. For Durkheim, social structure is something that organizes the social (socialization of people)

e. What does Durkheim believe caused the transition to modern society in Europe from the 18th century?

- The shift from traditional to modern society

- i. Durkheim's solution was to organize social organizations.
