TWO NATURES?

Two Natures

Two Natures:

The History of Heresies, and Their Refutation ... Translated ... by John T. Mullock ,1847 The Ecclesiastic [afterw.]
The Theologian and ecclesiastic [afterw.] The Ecclesiastic and theologian [afterw.] The Ecclesiastic ,1846 The Cambridge Companion to Boethius John Marenbon,2009-05-14 Boethius c 480 c 525 6 though a Christian worked in the tradition of the Neoplatonic schools with their strong interest in Aristotelian logic and Platonic metaphysics He is best known for his Consolation of Philosophy which he wrote in prison awaiting execution His works also include a long series of logical translations commentaries and monographs and some short but densely argued theological treatises all of which were enormously influential on medieval thought But Boethius was more than a writer who passed on important ancient ideas to the Middle Ages The essays here by leading specialists which cover all the main aspects of his writing and its influence show that he was a distinctive thinker whose arguments repay careful analysis and who used his literary talents in conjunction with his philosophical abilities to present a complex view of the world True Faith Rev. Silas Kanyabigega DMin,2017-02-24 God required the price to remove his anger against the humankind who offended him He wanted to see in that price a death with bloodshed as evidence demonstrating a sacrifice for the forgiveness of the sinners For God all sinners had to die So when Jesus died the corpse of Jesus represented the corpse of all sinners God was satisfied when he saw the corpse of Jesus God put in his mind that he had killed all mankind The punishment was then given and the problem between him and the humankind was resolved Jesus Christs corpse has ability to be the price required by God His blood as a killed sacrifice is the evidence of the death required by God The blood of animals was not needed in the mankinds salvation process The blood required by God was to be a mankinds blood This blood had to come from the death of a perfect person perfect as God himself The problem was only to be solved by the blood of God himself because only God is perfect But God could only die by taking human form that is why the Second Person of the Trinity Jesus Christ descent to earth to die in the place of humankind through an agonizing death at the cross of Golgotha and therefore he paid the price required by God Then God died as self substitution for men He was God man In beliefs of different world religions we cant find any other god who died for people Only God in whom Christians believe in died for humankind and he had risen He is alive Only the Faith in God propitiated for sinners is True Faith and other beliefs are false faith The Philosophy of the Church Fathers Harry Austryn Wolfson,1956 Early Scholastic Christology 1050-1250 Richard Cross,2024-09-16 This book traces developments in Christology and specifically the metaphysics of the union of divine and human natures in one person from 1050 the age of Anselm of Canterbury to 1250 the age of Albert the Great During the first part of the period the key issue is the conflict between Augustine s homo assumptus assumed man Christology defended by the Victorines and that of Boethius s Chalcedonian Christology defended by Gilbert of Poitiers sometimes known as the subsistence theory By 1180 the latter of these was almost universally accepted A third view apparently accepted by Peter Lombard among others according to which it is not true that Christ as man is something the non aliquid Christology was condemned in 1177 The second part of the book traces the way in which theologians attempted to develop the presentation of Conciliar Christology by working out inchoate solutions to some of the metaphysical questions that the issue raises what is the nature of the hypostatic union between the two natures or the human nature and the divine person is it something created or something uncreated And given that the human nature is a particular substance what prevents it from being a person Theologians used insights from both of the rejected theories the homo assumptus Christology and the non aliquid Christology in attempting to answer these issues The early thirteenth century saw both the founding of the universities of Paris and Oxford and the founding of the Franciscan and Dominican orders The book explores the impact of these religious identities on the formation of Christological teaching A History of Christianity in Asia, Vol. I Samuel Hugh Moffett,2014-07-30 The history of Christianity in the West has often been told but the story of Christianity in the East has received scant attention This Christianity looked neither to Rome nor Constantinople and for centuries remained proudly Asian This first volume of Samuel Moffett s epic history reveals this fascinating and little known story The Augsburg Confession Henry Eyster Jacobs,1888 The Two Natures Watchman Nee,1991-07 A Religious Encyclopaedia Or Dictionary of Biblical, Historical, Doctrinal, and Practical Theology Johann Jakob Herzog,Philip Schaff,1882 What is the Truth about Jesus Christ? Friedrich Loofs,1913 A Catholic Dictionary William Edward Addis,Thomas Arnold,1917 Ten Lectures on Orthodoxy and Heresy in the Christian Church Edward Henry Hall,1883 The Founding of a New World George Herbert Dryer,1898 Christ in Christian Tradition Aloys Grillmeier,1996-01-01 A monumental work in scope and content Aloys Grillmeier s Chirst in the Christian Tradition offers students and scholars a comprehensive exposition of Western writing on the history of doctrine Volume Two covers the Council of Chalcedon 451 to Gregory the Great 590 604 with Part Four focusing on the Church of Alexandria Studies in Russia Augustus John Cuthbert Hare,1885 Institutes of the Christian Religion Jean Calvin,1895 Among My Books Lowell,1873 Transactions of the Philological Society Philological Society (Great Britain),1877 Numa Roumestan.
