The Death of Classical Cinema Joe McElhaney,2012-02-01 The Death of Classical Cinema uncovers the extremely rich yet insufficiently explored dialogue between classical and modernist cinema examining the work of three classical filmmakers Alfred Hitchcock Fritz Lang and Vincente Minnelli and the films they made during the decline of the traditional Hollywood studio system Faced with the significant challenges posed by alternative art cinema and modernist filmmaking practices in the early 1960s these directors responded with films that were self conscious attempts at keeping pace with the developments in film modernism These films Lang s The Thousand Eyes of Dr Mabuse Hitchcock s Marnie and Minnelli s Two Weeks in Another Town were widely regarded as failures at the time and bolstered critics claims concerning the irrelevance of their directors in relation to contemporary filmmaking However author Joe McElhaney sheds new light on these films by situating them in relation to such acclaimed modernist works of the period as Godard s Contempt Fellini s La dolce vita Antonioni s Red Desert and Resnais s Last Year at Marienbad He finds that these modernist films rather than being diametrically opposed in form to the work of Hitchcock Lang and Minnelli are in fact profoundly linked to them

Robinson Encyclopedia Robert Beck,2008-09-16 Edward G Robinson a 1930s cinema icon had an acting career that spanned more than 60 years After a brush with silent films he rose to true celebrity status in sound feature films and went on to take part in radio and television performances then back to Broadway and on the road in live theatre This work documents Robinson s every known public performance or appearance listing co workers source material background and critical commentary The entries include feature films documentaries short subjects cartoons television and radio productions live theatre presentations narrations pageants and recordings Also included are entries relating to his life and career ranging from his wives to his art collection

A Hundred or More Hidden Things Mark Griffin,2010-03-09 He was the acclaimed director of such cinematic classics as Meet Me in St Louis An American in Paris and Gigi and equally well known for his tumultuous marriage to the legendary Judy Garland But to say that Vincente Minnelli s conflicted personal life informed his films would be an understatement As Mark Griffin persuasively demonstrates in this definitive biography of the Academy Award winning director Minnelli was not only building a remarkable Hollywood legacy but also creating an intriguing autobiography in code Drawing on more than 100 interviews with such icons as Kirk Douglas
