Assessment and Learning in Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) Classrooms Mark deBoer, Dmitri Leontjev, 2020-11-17 This volume builds a conceptual basis for assessment promoting learning in Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL classrooms and proposes practical assessment approaches and activities that CLIL teachers can apply in the classroom CLIL as an educational context is unique as language and content learning happen simultaneously The efficacy of such instruction has been studied extensively but assessment in CLIL classrooms has drawn much less attention The present volume aims to fill this gap Arranged based on different ways that content and language are integrated in CLIL the chapters in this book together build a solid theoretical basis for assessment promoting learning in CLIL classrooms The authors discuss how assessment eliciting this integration yields insights into learners abilities but more importantly how these insights are used to promote learning The contributors to the volume together build the understanding of classroom based assessment as cyclic of teaching learning and assessment as inter related and of content and language in CLIL classrooms as a dialectical unity This volume will spark interest in and discussion of classroom based assessment in CLIL among CLIL educators and researchers enable reflection of classroom assessment practices and foster collaboration between CLIL teachers and researchers The assessment approaches and activities discussed in the volume in turn will help educators understand the scope of applications of assessment and inspire them to adapt these to their own classrooms

A Happy Classroom Lois Allan Dommersnes,2014-07-10 Just imagine millions of students young and old all over the world sitting still and listening Are they happy I think not It has been observed by educators and confirmed by non verbal mathematical evaluations that there is a measurable discrepancy between the potential and the actual performance of many students Conclusion reached is that the way we educate our students in educational establishments does not produce successful or happy people The purpose of this book is to identify and describe the raw material we have the students and their environment the tools we have books computers and the product we hope to produce creative and productive students To achieve this we need to design activities that will allow the students to be involved with each other and independent of each other We must also take into account special gifts varied abilities and handicaps Activities which do not address the above conditions such as text books exercises rote learning and various busy work tasks are killers of all the attributes we love in our students spontaneity creativity enthusiasm curiosity and humour During my last few years teaching K 12 I came up with activities that were mostly student generated They presented their work to the class and we graded it together I have spent much time on classroom management for without organization routine and order chaos reigns Equal understanding by both students and teachers of the benefits of the well run classroom will add much to the learning environment I also have taken some time in coming up with grading strategies As we spend much time on testing and grading we need first of all to free the teachers from this tedium and then examine whether the benefits to the students warrant so much time spent on the testing process Perhaps my most rewarding task was the organization and design of a grading rubric We had so much fun Most importantly the teacher with a hundred and fifty student reports ha
