The Aging in Politics Robert B. Hudson, 1981 ABA Journal, 1981-04 The ABA Journal serves the legal profession. Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges, law students, law librarians, and associate members of the American Bar Association. Critical Perspectives on Aging Meredith Minkler, Carroll Estes, 2020-11-25 This unique volume brings together 20 critical essays on aging within the context of the broad social, political, and economic factors that help shape and determine the realities of growing old. Rather than viewing aging in isolation, it explores the social creation of old age dependency and the profound influence of race, gender, and social class on what it means to grow old. It looks too at such topics as the biomedicalization of aging, the role of business and the media in changing societal images of the old, the fact and fiction behind senior power, the multibillion dollar nursing home industry, and the role of advanced capitalist nations in creating economic dependency among elders in the Third World. The Generational Equity Debate John Williamson, John B. Williamson, Diane M. Watts-Roy, Eric R. Kingson, 1999 Contains 13 essays which discuss social security and Medicare policies and the equitable distribution of social benefits across generations. Debates the existence of a crisis and examines proposals for the reform of social security financing. Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Volume 3, 1982, 1982-01-15 The second volume in this long running series presents the usual critical and intensive review chapters divided into five sections but also addresses particular topics of special interest including drugs and their use and misuse among the aged, the nonmedication orientation to treatment of various disorders, the immune system, and clinical procedures in the management of urinary incontinence. As with all the volumes, the contributors represent an international array of leading experts. Landmark Legislation 1774-2012 Stephen W. Stathis, 2014-01-02 The Second Edition of this renowned treasure trove of information about the most important laws and treaties enacted by the U.S. Congress now deepens its historical coverage and examines an entire decade of new legislation. Landmark Legislation 1774-2012 includes additional acts and treaties chosen for their historical significance or their precedential importance for later areas of major federal legislative activity in the over 200 years since the convocation of the Continental Congress. Brand new chapters expand coverage to include the last five numbered Congresses, 10 years of activity from 2003-2012, which has seen landmark legislation in the areas of health insurance and health care reform, financial regulatory reform, fiscal stimulus, and the Temporary Asset Relief Program, federal support for stem cell research, reform of federal financial support for public schools and higher education, and much more. Features: Benefits. Each chapter covers one of the numbered Congresses with a historical essay followed by the major acts of that Congress arranged in chronological order of passage, with each act summarized. A Finder's Guide summarizes all of the acts and treaties into approximately 40 separate topical policy areas. The work's extensive bibliography has been expanded and updated. This one volume resource is a must-have for any public or academic library, especially those with strong American history or political science collections. Gerontological Social Work

Gray Agendas Henry J. Pratt, 1993 Gray Agendas presents a groundbreaking cross national study into the complex and interdependent relationship between public policy and the interest groups of the aged Canada Britain and the United States are examined and compared This book provides a unique in depth understanding of how public policies have sparked the creation of organized senior citizen groups which in turn through their intensified political clout have been able to shape subsequent public policy The book begins with a historical perspective on the state s role in the lives of the aged and the indirect consequences of various policies on the elderly population including most specifically age group mobilization Later consideration is given to widespread economic social and ideological changes in age policy and the effect that new interest group formation had and continues to have upon these changes The final chapters are concerned with current issues surrounding the present density of organized age based activity and the effects of transformed state policy on the future of interest groups for the aged The unique topic of Gray Agendas will prove interesting not only to those interested in the fields of sociology history and political science but also will help fill the gap of scholarly information on issues concerning the elderly s organizations proving invaluable to those interested in social gerontology and related areas of study
