Bockstoce, 2009-09-15 This comprehensive history of the native and maritime fur trade in Alaska during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries is without precedent The Bering Strait formed the nexus of the circumpolar fur trade in which Russians British Americans and members of fifty native nations competed and cooperated The desire to dominate the fur trade fed the European expansion into the most remote regions of Asia and America and was an agent of massive change in these regions Award winning author John R Bockstoce fills a major gap in the historiography of the area in covering the scientific commercial and foreign relations implications of the northern fur trade In addition the book provides rare insight into the relationship between the Western powers and the Native Americans who provided them with fur ivory and whalebone in exchange for manufactured goods tobacco tea alcohol and hundreds of other things But this is also the story of the enterprising individuals who energized the Alaskan fur trade and in doing so forever altered the region s history      The American Fur Trade of the Far West: Appendices Hiram Martin Chittenden, 1902      The American Fur Trade of the Far West Hiram Martin Chittenden, 1986-06-01 The American Fur Trade of the Far West is the premier history of its subject Its publication in 1902 invited historians and general readers to look more closely at the intricate connections of the fur trade with the development of North America Hiram Chittenden provides a perspective or overall outline of the fur trade that after nearly a century remains sound Volume 2 of this Bison Book edition follows the traps and trails of such colorful characters as Ezekial Williams Hugh Glass Mike Fink and John Colter Described here are the explorers missionaries government survey parties and Indian tribes of the fur trade West and the geography that often determined their success or failure Nine appendixes containing miscellaneous primary materials precede a bibliography and index A new feature is a foreword by William R Swagerty      The Far East, 1914      The Far East George Waldo Browne, 1901      The Far West Coast V.
