This House Is Haunted John Boyne,2013-10-08 A striking homage to the classic nineteenth century ghost story from the award winning and bestselling writer John Boyne 1867 Eliza Caine arrives in Norfolk to take up her position as governess at Gaudlin Hall on a dark and chilling night As she makes her way across the station platform a pair of invisible hands push her from behind into the path of an approaching train She is only saved by the vigilance of a passing doctor When she finally arrives shaken at the hall she is greeted by the two children in her care Isabella and Eustace There are no parents no adults at all and no one to represent her mysterious employer The children offer no explanation Later that night in her room a second terrifying experience further reinforces the sense that something is very wrong From the moment she rises the following morning her every step seems dogged by a malign presence which lives within Gaudlin s walls Eliza realises that if she and the children are to survive its violent attentions she must first uncover the hall s long buried secrets and confront the demons of its past Beware! this House is Haunted Lance Salway,1996 Jessica knows her holiday will be ruined now that her two horrible brothers are coming too When she sees a note in the cottage warning her it is haunted she thinks one of them wrote it But soon there are more notes and strange things begin to happen It seems the house really is haunted
