This Is Ecstasy:

This Is My Flesh Jae Hyung Cho,2022-01-28 In John 6 51 59 John describes the Eucharist of Jesus by modeling Dionysus In particular John 6 53 unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood you have no life in you is one of the most difficult verses found anywhere in the Bible To explain this a new approach is needed when one consistently contemplates why John uses flesh instead of body and This is my flesh instead of This is my body The Dionysiac ritual of eating and tearing raw flesh shows cannibalistic elements Unlike other negative descriptions of cannibalism in ancient literature Dionysus is described as both an eater and a giver of raw flesh By reevaluating the negative term of cannibalism John positively applies this Dionysiac cannibalism to the Eucharistic words in 6 51 59 Because emphatically and slightly ironically scholars arguments show that John 6 is still a hard teaching of Jesus Jesus hard saying 6 60 is a consequence of this cannibalistic language and the ambiguous features of Dionysus Monopsychism Mysticism Metaconsciousness Philip Merlan,2012-12-06 Part of the material contained in the present book was presented in the form of a lecture course given by me at the University of Oxford in 1962 as a Fulbright Senior Lecturer Scripps College and the Claremont Graduate School contributed to the cost of research and publication The staff of the Honnold Library Claremont California was extremely obliging in matters concerning inter library loans The page proofs were read in part by Professor Richard Walzer the University of Oxford Mr Salih Alich Blaisdell Institute Claremont California corrected many errors occurring in the transliteration from Arabic in Section V To all these institutions and persons I express my most sincere thanks The manuscript was essentially completed early in 1960 Scripps College Claremont California TABLES OF CONTENTS I GENERAL I Introduction 1 3 II Three neoaristotelian and neoplatonic concepts mono psychism mysticism metaconsciousness III Three A verroistic problems I Collective immortality and collective perfection in A verroes and Dante 2 Ecstatic conjunction death and immortality in the individual 102 94 3 The double truth theory and the problem of personal immortality in A verroes 102 II3 IV Collective consciousness double consciousness and metaconsciousness unconscious consciousness in Kant and some post Kantians 114 137 V Select bibliography of translations of philosophical works by al Kindi al Farabi Avicenna ibn Bagga and Averroes 138 150 VI Index of names 151 154 11 ANALYTICAL OF SECTION 11 I The starting point Plotinus Enn V 1 Plotinus principle l rL oux c u VOU toc V01 tCX Theosophical Outlook ,1919

If thinking for Descartes is proof of Being I think therefore I am writing to many of us is an act of intense suffering In fact suffering is integral to thinking as well Bertrand Russell s sarcastic comment most people would rather die than think and many of them do perhaps reflects his disdain for the lowly existence of such non thinkers Thinking and writing are interrelated Writing is a natural corollary of the act of thinking While thinking involves sincerity open mindedness flexibility and curiosity writing entails discipline focused and uninterrupted attention not easily available in today s world That would explain why there are very few good writers amidst us However the crux of the matter is this without doubting and questioning there can be no new knowledge and for Descartes the founder of the Rationalist School of philosophical thought therefore doubting and questioning are absolutely important virtues These two acts are constant reminders and indicators of human existence Plop Notes on Heidegger is an outcome of the aforementioned virtues an artistic expression that is creative and critical at once Life is all about trying to make sense of the seemingly nonsensical Meanings are to be made of our everyday life joys sorrows friends enemies and every relationship that we form in this temporal world What is that unifying factor that binds all these the is ness that was crucial to Heidegger It s interesting to learn that this work is born out of such a curiosity a curiosity to understand and make meanings out of certain phenomena perhaps even the most common ones which yet may have gone unnoticed or conveniently ignored all the while As the book is a critique of Heidegger s philosophy and in their objective to be faithful to his huge breadth of works the authors have discussed a vast gamut of topics ranging from everyday commonplace phenomena to art and culture from freedom to media and technology politics philosophy and education Philosophy is both inclusive and eclectic and this book too reflects that It is also quite heartening to know that our faculty and students have such critical insights and more importantly they are brought to the fore through such creative initiatives I take this opportunity to congratulate the team and also appreciate their efforts A great work indeed from a small team All the essays have been well conceived well researched and written in a way any one can not only understand the philosophical underpinnings of Heidegger s thoughts but also appreciate the relevance of Philosophy as a discipline itself Dr Abilash Chandran is from the Department of English Ms Neha Aggarwal is from Department of Psychology and Mr Ayush is a student of Science So here is an instance of Humanities Social Science and Science bonding to create a new paradigm and for CHRIST which is focused on inter and multi disciplinary approaches to learning this connection is extremely significant As illustrated through the work the possibilities of one s being are limitless and my best wishes to the team to continue to exploring the possibilities by doubting questioning introspecting and reflecting In all this have the courage to be self critical of your own work ideas and practices and that is yet another explicit sign of one s being Best Wishes Dr John J Kennedy Professor and Dean Humanities and Social Sciences Underground Rave Dance
