Robert Green Ingersoll

This Man This Woman:

Beginning from Man and Woman Bernard K. Wong, 2017-04-30 Engaging with contemporary thought on love and the family Bernard Wong argues that our notion of love has been deeply influenced by modern technological culture and political ideologies leading to the detriment of familial relationships Dr Wong demonstrates how Christian doctrines can be used to critique and resist these ideologies Through a careful analysis of Christ's love expressed in his life death and resurrection the author presents a notion of Christ's love bearing the characteristics of fraternal incarnational and unfolding love These aspects of Christ's love are pertinent to the relationships between husbands and wives parents and children and families and their neighbours It is through practicing Christ's love that Christians strengthen their familial relationships and bear witness to Christ in the world

Woman in a Man's Church, 2018-06-15 Are you satisfied with the position of women in the Church today No Are you willing to do something about it but don't know where to begin This book will inspire you to pick up the torch of Arlene's lifetime mission to see hear know and experience women as equals in the Church and in today's society Arlene's work was pivotal in validating both the movement of Catholic feminism and like Betty Friedan the general role of women in society Through her studies of scripture Arlene emboldened the position of women in church scholarship condemning the prominence of male thought in philosophy theology and psychology Today people refer to certain social injustice as a glass ceiling when the author wrote this book in 1971 the ceiling was more like an unscalable mountain

Annual Report of the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution Smithsonian Institution, 1889 Imago Dei: Man/Woman Created in the Image of God George Hobson, 2019-09-30 The question What is human nature is in vogue today Like everything else this concept is being deconstructed in the context of the reigning ideology of individualistic materialism Is there a fixed human nature or is this simply a manipulatable social construct with no objective reference This book says Yes there is the imago Dei man woman created in the image of God Hobson argues that this text from Genesis 1:26-28 is a God-given anthropological revelation that establishes the relational bond of human beings with their Creator and also with his creation for which the imago equips us to be responsible stewards Many of Hobson's essays were delivered as talks in parishes They explore from multiple angles the import of the imago Dei for theological and sacramental reflection apologetics aesthetics art and at a hands-on practical level for pastoral counseling and inner healing His texts one of which opens with a discussion of genocide contain incisive critiques of the dark side of modernity alongside wide-ranging demonstrations of the pertinence of the imago Dei to the current debates about human dignity and rights His book is a ringing call to the church to take the measure of the value of this anthropological revelation for its proclamation of the gospel
