The Old Wives' Tale Arnold Bennett, 2015-07-11 was clear that I had not seen an execution or words to that effect and he proceeded to give his own description of an execution It was a brief but terribly convincing bit of writing quite characteristic and quite worthy of the author of Montes the Matador and of a man who has been almost everywhere and seen almost everything I comprehended how far short I had fallen of the truth I wrote to Mr Frank Harris regretting that his description had not been printed before I wrote mine as I should assuredly have utilized it and of course I admitted that I had never witnessed an execution He simply replied Neither have I This detail is worth preserving for it is a reproof to that large body of readers who when a novelist has really carried conviction to them assert off hand O that must be autobiography
