Ethnomusicology and its Intimacies Stephen Cottrell, Dafni Tragaki, Stephen Wilford, 2023-12-12 Ethnomusicology and its Intimacies situates intimacy a concept that encompasses a wide range of often informal social practices and processes for building closeness and relationality within the ethnomusicological study of music and sound These scholarly essays reflect on a range of interactions between individuals and communities that deepen connections and associations and which may be played out relatively briefly or nurtured over time Three major sections on Performance Auto biographical Strategies and Film are each prefaced by an interview with a scholar or practitioner with close knowledge of the subject that links the chapters in that section Often drawing directly on fieldwork experience in a variety of contexts authors consider how concepts of intimacy can illuminate the ethnographic study of music addressing questions such as how can we understand ethnomusicological and ethnographic research and performance as processes of musically mediated intimacy How are the longstanding relationships we develop with others particularly intimated by and through musicking How do we understand the musically intimate relationships of others and how do these inflect our own musical intimacies How does music represent inscribe constrain or provoke social or personal intimacies in particular contexts The volume will appeal to all scholars with interests in music and how it is used to construct relationships in different contexts around the world

I Pray Because I Can't Do Life Alone Clay Cantrell, 2021-08-06 This collection of poems had taken ten years to compile Clay began to feel compelled to express the feelings and thoughts he was having and that expression seemed to come naturally through poetry These poems include conversations he's had with his Lord and Savior feelings of love for people who have been in his life feelings of insecurity and depression battles with addiction and struggles with demons that he believes come in many ways into people's lives to destroy any relationship they may be having or developing with the Savior There are poems of how amazing the plan that

God has orchestrated is as well as questions on why things happen the way they do Some of these poems come from deep inside him Some are introspective and some are a little more on the lighter side They re arranged in alphabetical order because there is really no other way to group them As Clay said it is a random collection of thoughts feelings and questions he s had as he developed his relationship with God and worked to learn how to deal with life Clay s hope is that whoever reads this book can find something they can relate to and something that helps them to understand that people don t have to be perfect They can ask God the tough questions People need to realize that He already knows what they think so they should just discuss whatever is on their minds with Him That s what a relationship is and that s what God wants with His people Clay has no idea if he will write another book This is God s plan and he is just thankful that He has allowed him to be part of it If He chooses to continue to use Clay in this way he will humbly obey Journal Anthropological Society of Bombay,1921
