Activities & Lesson Plans

LYRIC
POEM

A lyric poem is a poem that is always sung to music. Lyric poems are always meant to be human. The point of view and come in different forms.

MUSIC
LYRICS

Music lyrics are the words that are set to music. They are often a part of a story, or a story that is told in a poetic way. Just like in poems, lyrics are meant to be heard.

Important parts of the poem may include words, phrases, or lines that stand out to us. We will do literary devices or words whose meanings are not yet clear to us. The thoughts that we have can include questions, definitions, reactions, and commentary on the poem. Elements or figurative language used throughout the poem.

Try not to get frustrated if song lyrics don't make sense immediately. Solving the puzzle within each song is what makes poetry so exciting. Remember to be patient and have fun!

“

"I started off with poetry, I think writing poetry in junior high and high school. And poets, I mean, I was hooked on the songs. So, I started writing (and) poetry was songs, and that got more attention... It is the opinion that I started to get when I was writing poetry. It is poetry, to me."
- Taylor Swift

"I write songs to help me understand life a little more. I write songs to get past things that I can't talk about. I write songs to help me understand life a little more. I write songs to get past things that I can't talk about. I write songs to help me understand life a little more. I write songs to get past things that I can't talk about."
- Taylor Swift

Connecting Poetry to Music

Not every piece of music contains a poem, but many of our most beloved songs do. We call these poems lyrics, and today we'll be exploring this type of poetry.
