Teaching World Politics Lev S. Gonick, Edward Weisband, 2020-01-29 In this volume scholars and teachers share ideas about new ways to teach history culture and theory as well as new topics such as gender information flows and discourse This book is the product of a series of roundtable discussions conducted under the auspices of the Annual Meetings of the International Studies Association At both the 1991 Meetings in Vancouver and the 1992 Meetings in Atlanta we were extremely gratified by the response to our roundtables on Teaching World Politics in the 1990s Teaching International Relations in a Time of Disruption Heather A. Smith, David J. Hornsby, 2021-03-01 This volume asks how we as International Relations scholars support our students and indeed each other to create classroom spaces that foster the critical curiosity and engagement required to understand and live in a world that feels dangerously disrupted In an era of globalization disruption and pandemic International Relations educators need to reflect upon how teaching helps constitute the discipline and position our students to contribute to the advancement of International Relations as a discipline and practice Through exploring innovative approaches to teaching and learning this volume ensures that International Relations keeps up with the contemporary needs of students and student learning and takes advantage of the opportunity to advance as a discipline now and in the future As we move through pivots online and transitions to remote learning in the midst of a pandemic the need for attention to student learning is only made more prescient and urgent Teaching International Relations Scott, James M., Carter, Ralph G., Jolliff Scott, Brandy, Lantis, Jeffrey S., 2021-08-27 This comprehensive guide captures important trends in international relations IR pedagogy paying particular attention to innovations in active learning and student engagement for the contemporary International Relations IR classroom Conference of American Teachers of International Law, 1914 Teaching, 1921 *Proceedings of the ...
