Adepts in Self-Portraiture: Casanova, Stendhal, Tolstoy Stefan Zweig, 2019-08-16 Written in the 1920s Zweig's work of literary criticism and biography might today be titled Masters of Memoir In it Stefan Zweig one of the 20th century's most widely published writers describes the creative process and work of authors for whom no subject is as compelling as the material of their own lives Adept in Self Portraiture examines the lives and work of three men who represent in Zweig's view three levels of development in autobiographical writing The first and most basic level is evinced by Giacomo Casanova the Venetian womanizer who records his sexual and social conquests adventures and escapes without attempting to analyze or even reflect on them The second level of self portraiture is exemplified by Stendhal the French pioneer of psychological fiction who kept voluminous notebooks on his own experience of life and on whom no nuance of feeling seems to have been lost Russian master Leo Tolstoy represents the third and highest level of autobiographical writing in which the psychological is imbued with the spiritual and ethical In Adept in Self Portraiture Stefan Zweig examines the impulses that give rise to life writing and anticipates the current popularity of the memoir form

Balzac Stefan Zweig,2019-08-09 Zweig devoted ten years of research and writing to Balzac which he regarded as his crowning achievement This late work reads like a picaresque novel with Balzac's quest for a woman with a fortune and recurrent episodes of the author chasing an elusive pot of gold driving the story This biography of one classic author by another is filled with Zweig's characteristic psychological insights He portrays the energy and exuberance of imagination that produced some two thousand characters in La comédie humaine as well as the daily details of the coffee chugging writer's life his manic writing schedule method of correcting proofs dealing with publishers and reviewers signing contracts doing marketing and publicity Balzac blends biography and literary history in a highly readable volume that will teach you French cultural history as you laugh out loud Balzac is sure to entertain instruct and charm It is a work of art alive with the teeming life of its model It is true both to facts and to the more elusive psychological and spiritual truth of a man who has remained one of the most mysterious of great creators Henri Peyre Sterling professor of French Literature Yale University The New York Times
