The Isis Trilogy Monica Hughes,2017-10-31 This newly designed paperback edition brings together the stories of an acclaimed trilogy first published between 1980 and 1982 by an internationally renowned author of fantasy and science fiction The Keeper of the Isis Light is the first book in Monica Hughes acclaimed trilogy and it is the story of Olwen Pendennis the Keeper of the Isis Light She and her companion Guardian have lived alone on the remote planet Isis since the death of her parents Now colonists from an overcrowded and polluted Earth have landed and are settling in the valleys Olwen fears these new inhabitants may ruin her world forever and it seems she may be right Years later in Hughes sequel The Guardian of Isis the planet remains pristine and remote even after the arrival of settlers from Earth Over time the settlers have abandoned the technological knowledge of their ancestors and replaced it with myth But one young man seeks the truth and he soon gets the chance to find it The final chapter in the Trilogy The Isis Pedlar brings the devious Michael Joseph Flynn and his daughter Moira to Isis Michael s magic firestone his strangely delicious ambrosia and his mysterious Forever Machine are beguiling to the humble members of the Isis community Only Moira can expose this smooth talking pedlar for the charlatan that he is But will she be able to do it in time to save the simple agricultural community This trilogy is a testament to Hughes enormous talent for writing thought provoking speculative fiction

ReVisions Wendy Roy,2025-11-21 ReVisions examines speculative fiction film and television created by artists in Canada and reflecting their distinct experiences Bringing together critical and creative works by eighteen different authors the book re envisions Canadian politics cultures and societies and asks important questions about representations of our world The collection examines the realm of the past through a futuristic speculative lens asking readers to revise their understandings of past events and current relationships Editor Wendy Roy assembles a variety of investigations of Canada and the larger world including studies of the use of apocalyptic and dystopian scenarios by Indigenous writers to revisit Canada's history of colonization. The varied contributions demonstrate that speculative writing can help us to see what is happening in the world around us and at the same time to re-envision it, to reconsider the consequences of our actions and to imagine revised and perhaps better futures.

Young Adult Literature and Culture

Harry Eiss, 2009-03-26. This book offers a multifaceted approach to the world of young adults, everything from Ray Schrock's use of Walter Dean Myers' sports stories to discuss race relations and cultural politics to Joyce Litton's analysis of the highly popular Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants Quartet. The cover illustration is done by Joel Rudinger based on his experiences with the Inuit where he learned many of their legends and myths, resulting in his own excellent work on Sedna, the creation goddess, a story filled with deep tragedy, mystery, and the world of the spirits. This mythic world slides into the discussion of Harry Eiss' one that focuses on The Isis Trilogy, best known of Monica Hughes' many works who writes science fiction and fantasy in particular are valid carriers of myth for the 20th century and most especially for young people. Margaret Best and Susann deVries also give us literature that uses science. They begin The Science Fair Project, the central metaphor and the reality in Paul Zindel's The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man in the Moon Marigolds (1970), Christopher Paul Curtis's Bucking the Sarge (2004), and Joyce Maynard's The Cloud Chamber (2005). After providing an overview of science fiction, Sally Sugarman offers a study of the entire genre. For this study, two hundred and thirty-nine high school students from two schools in Vermont and Massachusetts were surveyed. Alethea K. Helbig provides an overview of her important activities promoting literature for the young. She was a seminal scholar and educator when colleges and universities were just beginning to take the study of such literature seriously when English departments were initiating serious undergraduate and graduate classes in what previously had been seen as inferior literature. Her life itself provides us with an entertaining and historically valuable autobiographical account of a person at the center of the change that has taken and continues to take place. Jerry Loving expands the horizons of the entire collection of essays, providing a firsthand account of how the young are educated in China, including a detailed history. It begins, "I have been traveling to mainland China at least 4 to 6 times a year as a teacher or education evaluator since 2002. As the visits and years passed, I watched the education system of China slowly improve to the level my schools were like when I went to school in the 50s and 60s."

Literary Conceptualizations of Growth, Roberta Trites, 2014-07-15. Literary Conceptualizations of Growth explores those processes through which maturation is represented in adolescent literature by examining how concepts of growth manifest themselves in adolescent literature and by interrogating how the concept of growth structures scholars' ability to think about adolescence. Cognitive literary theory provides the theoretical framework, as do the related fields of cognitive linguistics and experiential philosophy. Historical constructions of the concept of growth are also examined within the context of the history of ideas. Cross-cultural literature from the traditional Bildungsroman to the contemporary Young Adult novel serve as examples. Literary Conceptualizations of Growth ultimately asserts that human cognitive structures are responsible for the pervasiveness of growth as both a metaphor and a narrative pattern in adolescent
