The Shooters Corner:

Book of Fears: And Other Campfire Activities Michael Scott, 2015-06-03 There are more exciting things to do around a campfire than just roast s'mores. With that in mind, Michael Scott shares a collection of ghost stories and pranks sure to instill a creepy yet fun atmosphere that will create long-lasting memories for both older children and adults for years to come. Scott, who has been writing and telling stories around campfires for several years, offers a glimpse into dark places that stimulate the imagination to travel to frightening possibilities. A mother must pay the ultimate price for cursing God. John is an apprentice at the county morgue when he decides to play a prank that goes horribly wrong. Toby, who has just returned to the community where he grew up, is about to discover that coming back may have been a bad decision. Included with the stories are fun activities, pranks, and games sure to instigate fun moments in any crowd. Book of Fears is the perfect accompaniment to a night spent by a campfire when the fire just is not enough.

Not Your Average Joe Joseph Nava, 2019-04-01 Born during the Great Depression and not expected to live at birth, Joseph A. Nava is homeless at age fifteen, loses his chance at a college football scholarship after breaking his leg, and then struggles to support his growing family. Joe finds opportunity in the challenges he faces by moving his family from Massachusetts to Alaska with no job offer, only hope. In Alaska, Joe completes his education, works at the jobs he dreamed of, and with his intense love of hunting and competitive shooting, serves not only his community but nationally on the National Rifle Association board of directors. As a wildlife biologist, hunter, executive officer of the Institute of Arctic Biology, NRA All American shooter, licensed assistant big game guide, pilot, and community volunteer, Joe shares humorous and inspiring stories. Ever the teacher, Joe provides lessons on firearms safety, hunting, competitive shooting, and from his sought-after bear safety classes, how to stay safe in bear country. Through Joe's example, we learn that with hard work, we can be anything we want to be. Pennsylvania Game News, 2004.

The Federal Reporter, 1924 The Hollywood MBA Tom Reilly, 2017-01-10 What would you do if alligators were loose in your office? Or if your place of business changed 80 times during a four-month period? What if two of your key employees were infant twins? Or you were asked to manage 130 people who were hired yesterday? Tom Reilly has faced these obstacles and thousands more in his three-decade career managing major motion pictures. He's led more than 100,000 employees and been responsible for overseeing over two billion dollars in pro-rated production budgets and learned that successful management isn't about what you want; the question is what do you NEED. Often filming at live locations, Reilly was forced to adopt a unique set of strategies to accommodate for extreme workplace conditions and the challenge of leading and managing big-budget projects, a revolving-door workforce of technicians and actors such as Al Pacino, Robert De Niro, Tom Hanks, Charlize Theron, Sean Connery, and Harrison Ford. In The Hollywood MBA, Reilly explores the ten key strategies he utilized to manage big crews, big budgets, and big personalities on major motion pictures and shows us how these strategies can be leveraged in any business for success. With an eye for making small adjustments to management strategy, that produce big results Reilly utilizes the narrative backdrop of the film set as an extreme case study in modern management identifying proven easy to implement and often counter intuitive practices that will increase engagement team cohesion efficiency creativity quality and the bottom line in any industry American Rifleman ,1927 The Beauty of Destruction Gavin G.
