The Silent:

The Silent God M.C.A. Korpel, Johannes C. de Moor, 2011-03-24 Like the biblical Job many people suffer under the silence of God This book shows that it is enlightening to retrace the origins of the concept of divine speech and silence in the ancient Near East and Greece

The silent morning Trudi Tate, Kate Kennedy, 2016-01-04 This is the first book to study the cultural impact of the Armistice of 11 November 1918 It contains 14 new essays from scholars working in literature music art history and military history The Armistice brought hopes for a better future as well as sadness disappointment and rage Many people in all the combatant nations asked hard questions about the purpose of the war These questions are explored in complex and nuanced ways in the literature music and art of the period This book revisits the silence of the Armistice and asks how its effect was to echo into the following decades The essays are genuinely interdisciplinary and are written in a clear accessible style

The Silent House Edward Payson Tenney, 1876

Into the Silent Land Martin Laird, 2006-07 Laird shows that the Christian tradition of contemplation has its own refined teachings on using a prayer word to focus the mind working with the breath to cultivate stillness and the practice of inner vigilance or awareness

Sounding the Silence John Skinner, 2005-09 Here is an invitation to experience God in the prayerful moments of silent meditation Sounding the Silence guides our prayer so that we can escape the chaos and distractions that life sometimes gives us and just sit in silence with God Inspired by the Carthusian tradition of silent prayer Skinner offers simple models of praying that are both inviting and safe proving that anyone can pray and that no prayer is the same It provides weekly readings based on a simple half hour of stillness and threaded together to provide a year long exploration of silence The book can be used individually or by Catholic and ecumenical prayer groups RCIA team members worship team members and parish or diocesan staff members
