J.,2026-02-28 I tried to quit My boss said no For five years I survived Damien Cross billionaire tyrant the most demanding man I d ever met I endured his impossible standards his cutting words his late night demands that left me exhausted and empty Then my doctor gave me twelve months before my memory starts to fade Twelve months before I forget everything my name my life the people I love Suddenly surviving wasn t enough anymore I needed to live So I quit I walked away from the job that consumed me and the man who couldn't see past his own ambition But Damien Cross doesn't take no for an answer He offered me millions to stay Promised to make my final year unforgettable Swore he'd help me check off every dream on my bucket list before time ran out I should have said no Should have walked away and never looked back But then he looked at me really looked at me for the first time in five years And I saw something I never expected Fear Desperation Need So I said yes One year Then I'd be free I didn't expect to fall in love with him And I definitely didn't expect him to fall apart when I started forgetting his name Now I wake up every morning not knowing who he is And every morning he tells me our story all over again How we met How we fought How we fell Every day I forget him Every day he makes me fall in love again They say you can't hold onto something you're destined to lose But Damien Cross has never been good at letting go And neither have I
