Wake Up Women:

Women, Wounds and Wakeup Calls Juanita Price, 2026-02-20 There comes a point in a woman's life when she realizes she hasn't been living she's been surviving She's been shrinking in conversations Editing her tone Carrying emotional weight that was never hers to carry Calling exhaustion love Calling silence peace Walking on eggshells because conflict feels dangerous and change feels messy and staying feels safer than stepping into the unknown Women Wounds and Wake Up Calls is not a soft devotional meant to soothe what is slowly breaking you It is a truth telling journey A 52 week interruption A steady unflinching conversation about the wounds women carry quietly the relationships that taught them to shrink the roles that demanded self sacrifice the patterns they stay in because leaving feels terrifying This book does not rush you to move on It walks you through wake up calls that confront what you've normalized It helps you see how survival rewrote your personality It names the over functioning the people pleasing the fear of being alone the confusion between chaos and chemistry and then it invites you into something stronger than coping but rather healing and relearning that changes not just how you feel but how you live If you have ever felt like you lost yourself trying to be strong loyal approved chosen needed or loving this book will feel uncomfortably familiar right before you exhale a sigh of relief It will challenge you It will open up your eyes and lead you back home to the woman God intended you to be before survival taught you to disappear The
