Skin Tight Stuart Haussler,2003-05-14 This is a story about Sam Hull a United States Marshal and the inner desires he set aside to bring Law and Order to wherever he was needed Now approaching the later years of his life he wants to seek out those dreams of yesteryears that have eluded him as a Marshal The dreams of starting a cattle ranch marrying and having children Having been a part of the judiciary system for so long he begins to periodically question if he has had enough of death deceit and the quagmire of sadness that goes along with being a United States Marshal All the things he desires become his but not without struggles that inevitably cause him to once again want to resign However with the right woman at his side and a renewed vigor he finds what sustained all those who built the west Courage the courage to go on and initiate new dreams ambitions and to continue on as a Marshal at large by putting aside any doubts about his ability to serve with Honor

Lyric of the Circle Heart William Eastlake,1996 These novels face head on the reality of the American Indian perhaps the last great taboo in American culture After all of the flag waving the wars to protect the Land of the Free and interventions around the world in the name of democracy how do Americans admit even today that America was not discovered by Columbus and not courageously cultivated by white Anglo Saxons The land was invaded and a people destroyed all in the name of religion political freedom and money Long before Cormac McCarthy and even long before Tom Robbins William Eastlake invented an American Southwest whose comic and tragic dimensions as well as its hard beauty encapsulates American myths and nightmares in much the way that Faulkner did with his invented Yoknapatawpha County Against a background of New Mexico that transcends regional space Eastlake explores race greed and tradition evoking stereotypes for the sake of exploding them and laying bare an American reality that is a strange mix of pop culture zany humor biting satire and a deep seated respect for and love of the land
