World Around The Chinese Artist:

The World Around the Chinese Artist Richard Edwards, 2000 In this series of lectures on the painters Hsia Kuei twelfth thirteenth centuries Shen Chou fifteenth sixteenth centuries and Shih t ao seventeenth eighteenth centuries Richard Edwards explores the special relationship between the self and landscape in Chinese art These three painters each important in his own time and deemed a master by later critics were all concerned with the subjective in the objective world In Chinese painting there is no clear desire to separate these two realms rather there is a constant conscious play between the physical reality of the world and the subjective vision of the artist The artist is continually imitating the world sometimes more sometimes less but he never denies its appearance to the point of total abstraction nor in the other extreme does he claim for the physical world an existence independent of his own involvement Richard Edwards is Professor Emeritus of East Asian Art and Art History University of Michigan

The Artist of Evolution — Sun Tzu David R. Wood, 2025-03-19 The Artist of Evolution is an evolutionary reframing of the text The Art of War Revealing Sun Tzu as a naturalist in the mold of Charles Darwin As his faith Taoism looked to the divine patterns in nature for wisdom Enabling him to intuitively understand that human warfare was just another competitive pattern in what Charles Darwin termed the war of nature So he systematically studied the competitive patterns in nature to gain advantage in war This book proceeds chapter by chapter line by line evolutionary reframing Sun Tzu's text Identifying the hidden conceptual pattern cutting across Sun Tzu's theory Clarifying concepts and correcting mistranslations in the original ancient text Thereby providing new insights and competitive value to strategists and leaders across human activity Made possible by adopting the integrated perspective of the greatest minds of history Charles Darwin Laozi Parmenides Socrates Plato Aristotle Machiavelli etc The Artist of Evolution is a methodical and comprehensive reframing of Sun Tzu's text that makes his competitive advantages accessible and comprehensible to every competitive field business sports politics warfare etc And it will digitally disrupt and revolutionize the academic fields of military science political science business management sports management digital transformation and so many more It is intended to be a leadership and strategic thinking primer for leaders in any field of human activity And renew interest in ancient texts and authors As a source of timeless wisdom yet unmatched by modern science Produced primarily by the power of human imagination Paul Noble Paul Noble, Whitechapel Art Gallery, 2004
