World In Transition Post Soviet Spill Over:

The World in Transition Satyendra Kumar Singh, 2002 With reference to Russia and Central Asia after the post Soviet Union collapse Good Governance in the Era of Global Neoliberalism Jolle Demmers, Alex E. Fernández Jilberto, Barbara Hogenboom, 2004-08-02 The contributions cover a wide range of territories Argentina Russia the Ukraine Indonesia and Taiwan The book will be the first to call into question the idea of good governance and exactly what that implies The editors have a good track record and have been widely published in the area Book should be of great appeal to all international and development economists The Journal of Central Asian Studies , 2003 Dilemmas of Transition in Post-Soviet Countries Joel C. Moses, 2003 Exploring the tensions inherent in transition this perceptive book offers a wide ranging overview of the impact of democracy and capitalism on the former Soviet republics Leading scholars assess the region s daunting problems in the key realms of privatization democratization foreign investment agrarian reform local governance and market economics The contributors argue that the central dilemma facing all these fledgling countries is the inherent contradiction between the immediate pursuit of privatization and foreign investment and the long term policy goal of democratization Offering both theoretical and comparative perspectives on the far reaching implications of nation building and democratic transition this valuable study will enable both students and scholars to comprehend the unique difficulties of transition

Experiencing Europeanization in the Black Sea and South Caucasus Oliver Türkeş-Kılıç, Selin Gabrichidze, Gaga Reisner, 2021-11-30 The book series European Studies in the Caucasus offers innovative perspectives on regional studies of the Caucasus By embracing the South Caucasus as well as Turkey and Russia it moves away from a traditional viewpoint of European Studies that considers the countries of the region as objects of Europeanization This second volume demonstrates this by looking into forms of inter regionalism in the Black Sea South Caucasus area in fields of economic cooperation Europeanization of energy and environmental policies discussing how the region is addressed in the elaboration of a new German Eastern Policy In the section on norm diffusion the contributors assess the normative power strategy of the EU and its paradoxes in the region its impact on civil society development in Armenia and democracy promotion in Georgia In the section on legal approximation issues of a global climate change regime and competition law in Georgia as well as penitentiary governance reform in the South Caucasus according to EU standards and policies are analyzed All contributions also review regional or local contestations for the topics discussed here Journal of Parliamentary Information , 2003-03

South-Central Asia Dr. Kuldeep Singh, 2005 Contributed articles presented at a national seminar held on 28 29 February 2004 The Journal of Parliamentary Information , 2003 (Un)avoidable Conflict in Ukraine Cristian Nitoiu, 2025-06-26 Taking a conceptual approach to European Russian relations in the post Cold War era this book traces how each side s ideal self came into conflict with fault lines in international politics Russia s 2022 full scale invasion of Ukraine is not only a symptom of conflict taking over the European continent but also a point of no return that will be difficult to roll back Could the state of conflict on the European continent have been avoided To understand the nature and evolution of conflict with Russia this book presents a theoretically informed discussion of the way relations between the European Union EU and Russia deteriorated beyond repair during the more than three decades since the collapse of the Soviet Union First the book develops the concept of ideal self of states and international organisations like the EU which posits that a series of ideal perceptions about how the self should act in the world order drives the behaviour of states and their policymakers Second the book turns to the study of fault lines or spaces of divergence in the world order that harbour the potential for conflict With these two theoretical toolkits the book shows how leaders in the EU and Russia by February 2022 came to view conflict as a feasible preferable and possibly the only option available to them Even though neither the EU nor Russia had desired conflict both made little effort to avoid it As a result the European continent has sleepwalked into conflict with the potential for that conflict to spill over from Europe and escalate beyond a point of no return between the West and its global challengers

The Current Digest of the Post-Soviet Press ,1995 Russian Literature since 1991 Evgeny Dobrenko,Mark Lipovetsky,2015-11-12 Russian Literature since 1991 is the first comprehensive single volume compendium of modern scholarship on post Soviet Russian literature The volume encompasses broad complex and diverse sources of literary material from ideological and historical novels to experimental prose and poetry from nonfiction to drama Written by an international team of leading experts on contemporary Russian literature and culture it presents a broad panorama of genres in post Soviet literature such as postmodernism magical historicism hyper naturalism in drama and the new lyricism At the same time it offers close readings of the most prominent works published in Russia since the end of the Soviet regime and elimination of censorship The collection highlights the interdisciplinary context of twenty first century Russian literature and can be widely used both for research and teaching by specialists in and beyond Russian studies including those in post Cold War and post communist world history literary theory comparative literature and cultural studies

The Baltic as a Multicultural World Marko Lehti,2005 The end of the Cold War brought the Baltic Sea area into the limelight of political and cultural cooperation Since then the Baltic Sea area has gained a powerful position as a dynamic European sub region Still like other similar kinds of areas defined by a sea or a river the Mediterranean world the Black Sea or the Danube the Baltic Sea area is hard to define and it has as many definitions as there are map makers The sea itself plays a central role but its influence is vague and always contingent This book has sought to introduce multiple insights for focusing on the Baltic All the contributions examine the question of the essence of the Baltic and the source of its unity and in particular concentrate on multi culturality and multi nationality in the Baltic context Some of the contributions survey the whole Baltic Sea area while others concentrate on the Baltic countries and some of them have found the Baltic in the limited environment of parish and town The Baltic is comprehended as a label that opens stimulating possibilities for replacing nation centricism with narratives of another kind extending beyond the current nation states This understanding provides opportunities for defining a multi ethnic multi lingual and multi cultural region and the diversity of identities that has existed

The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution Jacob Bercovitch, Victor Kremenyuk, I William Zartman, 2008-12-03 The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution demonstrates the range of themes that constitute modern conflict resolution It brings out its key issues methods and dilemmas through original contributions by leading scholars in a dynamic and expanding field of inquiry This handbook is exactly what it sets out to be an indispensable tool for teaching research and practice in conflict resolution Peter Wallensteen Professor of Peace and Conflict Research Uppsala University and University of Notre Dame Bercovitch Kremenyuk and Zartman are among the most important figures in the conflict resolution field They have pieced together with the help of more than 35 colleagues from numerous countries a state of the art review of the sources of international conflict available methods of conflict management and the most difficult challenges facing the individuals and organizations trying to guide us through these conflict ridden times The collection is brimming with penetrating insights trenchant analyses compelling cases and disciplined speculation They help us understand both the promise of as well as the obstacles to theory building in the new field of conflict resolution Lawrence Susskind Professor and Director of the MIT Harvard Public Disputes Program The last three sentences of this persuasive book We conclude this volume more than ever convinced that conflict resolution is not just possible or desirable in the current international environment It is absolutely necessary Resolving conflicts and making peace is no longer an option it is an intellectual and practical skill that we must all possess If you are part of that we intellectually or professionally you will find this book a superb companion Thomas C Schelling Professor Emeritus Harvard University and University of Maryland Conflict resolution is one of the fastest growing academic fields in the world today Although it is a relatively young discipline having emerged as a specialized field in the 1950 s it has rapidly grown into a self contained vibrant interdisciplinary field The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution brings together all the conceptual methodological and substantive elements of conflict resolution into one volume of over 35 specially commissioned chapters The Handbook is designed to reflect where the field is today by drawing on the contributions of experts from different fields presenting in a systematic way the most recent research and practice Jacob Bercovitch is Professor of International Relations and Fellow of the Royal Society at the University of Canterbury in Christchurch New Zealand Victor Kremenyuk is deputy director of the Institute for USA and Canada Studies Russian Academy of Sciences Moscow He is also a research associate at IIASA I William Zartman is Jacob Blaustein Professor of Conflict Resolution and International Organization at the Nitze School of Advanced International Studies of Johns Hopkins University

The Post-Soviet Economy Anders Åslund, 1992 In the context of the Soviet economic crisis of 1991 this work offers the views of 12 economists half from the USSR half from the West While all agree on the need for a market economy the Soviet writers here argue for a markedly more gradual change than do their Western counterparts

Post-Soviet Affairs, 1996 The Soviet and Post-Soviet Review, 1998

EU Eastern Enlargement and the Russian Transformation Crisis Paul J.J. Welfens, 2012-12-06 Europe s

economic and political landscape is changing dramatically The demise of the socialist CMEA and the USSR has allowed eastern European economies to open up and caused Russia the CIS to engage in a series of difficult reforms which have been supported by the G 7 and the International Monetary Fund plus the World Bank on the one hand and on the other hand by the EU and the EBRD While some of the early Visegrad countries apparently were rather successful in their transition attempt systemic transition approaches in other countries Romania and Bulgaria and above all in Russia largely were a failure Economic hardship social unrest political radicalization and the international spreading of criminal activities can be identified as problems from the failure of Russia s first transition attempt This book deals from an international perspective with the postsocialist countries in Europe i e there is a focus on eastern enlargement and on Russia on the one hand on the other hand the topic is which international influences and effects will emerge from EU enlargement and the Russian transition While chapter A exclusively deals with major problems of eastern enlargement and the policy options for dealing with this difficult problem chapter B is devoted to the Russian transformation crisis There the analysis has a focus on Russia in its own right but also on the potential negative spillovers of a Russian transformation disaster which could occur in the late 1990s

Three Social Science Disciplines in Central and Eastern Europe Max Kaase,Vera Sparschuh,Agnieszka Wenninger,2002 The volume documents the development of economics political science and sociology in Central and Eastern Europe EU accession countries from 1989 to 2001 with a special emphasis on research Additionally the recent situation of anthropology demography and legal studies is reviewed though not in the same detail as the three disciplines mentioned first The book is dedicated to the enhancement of worldwide information and communication on Central and Eastern European social sciences the improvement of options for cooperation in comparative research involving CEE countries and the spread of information on and access to capable CEE social science research institutions A CD ROM enclosed in the handbook presents an overview on Central and Eastern European institutions in the respective countries relevant for economics political sciences and sociology about 700 institutions
