Teaching with a Multicultural Perspective Leonard Davidman, Patricia T. Davidman, 1994 Teaching from a Multicultural Perspective Helen Roberts, Juan C. Gonzalez, Olita Harris, Delores Huff, Ann M. Johns, Ray Lou, Otis Scott, 1994-06-29 The authors of this volume all experienced teachers and administrators outline how to teach in a multicultural environment They suggest classroom strategies curriculum reforms and assessment tools that work for all students

Teaching with a Multicultural Perspective Leonard Davidman, Patricia T. Davidman, 1992 Turning on Learning Carl A. Grant, Christine E. Sleeter, 2006-01-13 This new Fourth Edition contains many lesson plans that cover a variety of subject areas and grade levels 1 12 as well as action research activities that investigate the various dimensions of teaching Many of the lesson plans are written by actual classroom teachers and all of them have been examined by practicing teachers More than simply a how to manual it is designed to help the teacher or teacher education student teach from a multicultural perspective Each lesson plan offers a Before version the lesson as it is usually taught and an After version how the lesson can be improved to turn on learning A discussion explaining why the changes were made follows each lesson plan

Teaching with a Multicultural Perspective Leonard Davidman, Patricia T. Davidman, 1997 This text offers a clear seven goal model for creating effective instruction in culturally diverse classrooms The model based on a set of field tested planning questions is linked to a series of curriculum case studies Strong coverage of ethnic identity empowerment the social construction of knowledge and equity based learning Multicultural Education Training LaToya A. Jackson M.E.D., 2015-09-15 This teacher education training program will help preservice and beginning teachers develop culturally sensitive curriculum that will integrate multicultural viewpoints and histories into the classroom apply instructional strategies that encourage all students to achieve and review school and district policies related to educational equity The multicultural education teacher training program is a comprehensive training curriculum that provides knowledge and skills necessary to teach in a multicultural classroom This training program emphasizes hands on practice in a professional learning environment which equips prospective teachers to participate in a diverse learning environment From a multicultural perspective all students should receive an education that continuously affirms human diversity one that embraces the history and culture of all racial groups and that teaches people of color to take charge of their own destinies With regard to teaching a multicultural perspective assumes that teachers will hold high expectations for all students and that they will challenge those students who are trapped in the cycle of poverty and despair to rise above it

Teaching in a Multicultural Society Dolores E. Cross, Gwendolyn C. Baker, Lindley J. Stiles, 1977 Twelve articles deal with the nature and extent of cultural diversity in the United States the myths and realities of multicultural societies and practical educational programs and teaching strategies Culture, Motivation and Learning Farideh Salili, Rumjahn Hoosain, 2007-05-14 This book presents research on the influence of culture on learning and motivation emphasizing the need to apply psychoeducational constructs across cultures It explores learning and motivational characteristics of diverse students offering insights into effective teaching strategies from a multicultural perspective Language, Culture, and Teaching Sonia Nieto, 2009-09-10 Distinguished multiculturalist Sonia Nieto speaks directly to current and future teachers in this thoughtful integration of a selection of her key writings with creative pedagogical features Offering information insights and motivation to teach students of diverse cultural racial and linguistic backgrounds this text is intended for upper undergraduate and graduate level students and professional development courses Examples are included throughout to illustrate real life dilemmas about diversity that teachers face in their own classrooms ideas about how language culture and teaching are linked and ways to engage with these ideas through reflection and collaborative inquiry Each chapter includes critical questions classroom activities and community activities suggesting projects beyond the classroom context Over half of the chapters are new to this edition bringing it up to date in terms of recent educational policy issues and demographic changes in our society Does My Teaching from a Multicultural Perspective Influence My Students' Perceptions of and Interactions with Other Cultures? Lisa A. Sanders, 2001 Teaching, Learning, and Motivation in a Multicultural Context Farideh Salili, Rumjahn Hoosain, 2003-01-01 This volume presents current research and emerging issues in teaching learning and motivation in a multicultural context It is divided into four sections with the introduction outlining current issues and recent thoughts on learning teaching and school reforms from a multicultural perspective Developing Multicultural Teacher Education Curricula Joseph M. Larkin, Christine E. Sleeter, 1995-01-01 This book explores how to make teacher preparation more multicultural Transforming the Multicultural Education of Teachers Michael J. Vavrus, 2002-09-06 Recognizing the responsibility institutions have to prepare teachers for today's diverse classrooms Vavrus shows us how to incorporate transformative multicultural education into teacher education curriculum pedagogy and evaluation Placing race racism antiracism and democracy at the center of his analyses and recommendation this volume provides Concrete structural suggestions for including transformative multicultural education in higher education and K 12 in service programs A multicultural critique of new NCATE accreditation standards for teacher education programs that offers reconceptualized assessment procedures The historical roots of transformative multicultural education that incorporates issues of white privilege and racialized color blindness anti racist pedagogy racial identity among teachers and critical race theory A discussion of globalization that emphasizes its contemporary economic effects on social and educational inequities International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-09-04 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts the Handbook synthesizes existing research literature helps define the past and contributes to shaping the substantive and methodological future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the lived practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each centering on a major area or issue in arts education research These areas include History of arts education curriculum evaluation cultural centers appreciation composition informal learning child culture creativity the body spirituality and technology The individual chapters address cross cultural research related to the central theme of the section from the perspectives of the particular arts discipline Interludes provide reflective thoughts on the theme Teaching from a Multicultural Perspective Robert Singer, Tony Giffone, Raymond D. Dunstan, Lisa M. Madden, Maria C. Caballero, Laura N. Vural, 1992-10-01

Multicultural Education Hilda Hernández, 2001 This is a book for teachers who want to foster excellence and equity wherever they teach be that in urban suburban or rural settings Multicultural Education Margaret D. Pusch, 1979 Primarily designed for use in teacher education programs this manual provides education faculty with a resource for building multicultural education training into the teacher education curriculum Chapter 1 defines terms basic to multicultural education intercultural communication and cross cultural training Chapter 2 discusses the theory of intercultural communication Chapter 3 outlines the history of multicultural education and focuses on linguistic diversity Chapter 4 contains a discussion of the multicultural curriculum and considers possibilities for infusing existing courses with multicultural perspectives Chapter 5 studies the training of teachers for multicultural education competencies reviews methods of teacher training and offers specific applications of multicultural concepts in teacher education Chapter 6 lists 30 teaching strategies drawn from the cross cultural literature and adapted for teacher preservice and inservice training It also details exercises for role playing critical incidents case studies simulation and group discussion Chapter 7 presents procedures for the evaluation of cross cultural training and education The manual also includes a 65 item annotated bibliography and film list CM Evolving Multicultural Education for Global Classrooms Gordon, Richard Keith, Ahmed, Kawser, Hosoda, Miwako, 2021-06-18 Multicultural education is a construct that has been very useful for many years in harboring sensitivities teachers need in addressing diverse students Now the discipline needs refreshing In the global society the idea of multicultural education a decidedly Western formation needs to expand its conceptual boundaries Salient issues in multicultural education such as individual identities social justice and equity are bedrock concerns of multicultural educators These concepts are considered necessary but not sufficient in shaping an evolving model of multicultural education The complexity of humans and modern and emerging societies requires a broadened scope of the understanding of contemporary multicultural theory and practice Evolving Multicultural Education for Global Classrooms addresses multicultural education from a comprehensive viewpoint that acknowledges the historical benefit of multicultural education and recognizes a need to inform the discipline with a broader viewpoint As most knowledge on multicultural education comes from a Western perspective and the scholarship on the topic is weakening the chapters in this book present new practices and classroom applications that are internationally transferable Topics covered include teacher education social justice educational equity and inclusion online education and cultural sensitivities This book is ideally intended for teachers educational theorists sociologists of education inservice and preservice teachers administrators teacher educators practitioners researchers academicians and students interested in a fresh global perspective on multicultural education

Teaching the Novel across the Curriculum Colin C. Irvine, 2007-11-30 Instructors at all levels are being encouraged to teach writing in their courses even in subjects other than English Because the novel reflects a broad set of human experiences and history it is the ideal vehicle for learning about a wide range of issues This book helps educators learn how to incorporate novels in courses in English the humanities social and behavioral sciences and professional studies The chapters focus on using the novel to explore ethical concerns multiculturalism history social theory psychology social work and education The book looks at major canonical works as well as graphic novels and popular literature Language arts are at the forefront of education these days Instructors at all levels are being encouraged to teach writing in their courses even if those courses cover subjects other than English Literature instructors have long used fiction to teach composition But because the novel reflects a broad range of human experiences and historical events it is the ideal medium for learning about contemporary social issues This book helps educators learn how to use the novel in courses in English the humanities social and behavioral sciences and professional studies The book is divided into broad sections on general education classes multiculturalism literature classes humanities courses classes in social behavioral and political sciences and professional studies such as social work and teacher training Each section includes chapters written by gifted teachers and provides a wealth of theoretical and practical information While the book examines major canonical works such as Hard Times Billy Budd and Invisible Man it also looks at graphic novels science fiction and popular contemporary works such as Finishing School and Jarhead Chapters reflect the personal successes of their authors and cite works for further reading

Crossing the Mainstream Eileen Iscoff Oliver, 1994 Intended to help literature teachers examine ways in which the traditional canon can be expanded to include diversity in curricular choices this book invites readers to work together to find new and better ways to introduce an ever changing student body to what has heretofore been either unacknowledged or undervalued The book is divided into three sections Part 1 Multicultural Literature for Whom develops a rationale for expanding the canon to include multicultural literature in every student s experience and also confronts the issue of censorship Part 2 Curricular Challenges Beyond Eurocentric Values begins the task of cataloging the multitude of literary works that might be included in the new repertoire and also explores the process of learning a different kind of critical analysis This section of the book also provides comprehensive bibliographies of African American Asian American Jewish Latino Native American and cross cultural literatures as well as bibliographies of literature addressing emotional mental and physical disabilities homelessness homosexuality older adults teenage suicide and Vietnam veterans Finally Part 3 Teaching Strategies for Multicultural Literature gives examples of how multicultural works can be incorporated into literature courses Also included are discussions of incorporating multicultural perspectives within composition classes assessing student writing and making interdisciplinary connections in teaching multicultural literature NKA
