The Death of Papa Horton Foote, 1989 The play begins by introducing the next generation of Robedauxs in the person of Horace s son Horace Jr who comes home from school to find that his maternal grandfather Henry Vaughn has died suddenly of a heart attack From this point two main storylines are traced in the play One deals with young Horace s coming to terms with the concepts of life death and familial relationships He finds that his mother Elizabeth is expecting another baby he listens to and asks many questions about the widely contrasting accounts of his two grandfathers and he endures the fussing of his paternal grandmother who s fearful that his love of reading will make him too introspective and ruin him for the real world He must also come to grips with the drowning of Gertrude a young black girl who was his confidante and friend The other storyline concerns Brother Vaughn Henry Vaughn s dissolute son who in the short time during which he has control heads his late father s farms and other holdings on a course toward rapid ruin When his mother takes back control of the estate Brother heads off to Galveston where he subsequently kills a man in a drunken brawl Through all of this Horace Sr maintains his own counsel although he stands up to his mother concerning his son's love of reading and he comforts his wife Elizabeth through the crises affecting her family. But he refrains even when asked from interfering in the family's affairs and as the play ends the suggestion is strong that things are subtly but inexorably beginning to flow his way. Theater Week, 1989 Steeltown U.S.A Sherry Lee Linkon, John Russo, 2002. Once the symbol of a robust steel industry and blue collar economy Youngstown Ohio and its famous Jeannette Blast Furnace have become key icons in the tragic tale of American deindustrialization. Sherry Lee Linkon and John Russo examine the inevitable tension between those discordant visions which continue to exert great power over Steeltown's citizens as they struggle to redefine their lives. When the Jenny was shut down in 1978 50,000 Youngstown workers lost their jobs cutting the heart out of the local economy. Even as the community organized a nationally recognized effort to save the mills the city was rocked by economic devastation runaway crime and mob scandal problems that persist twenty five years later. In the midst of these struggles the Jenny remained standing as a proud symbol of the community's glory days still a dominant force in the construction of both individual and collective identities in Youngstown. Focusing on stories and images that both reflect and perpetuate how Youngstown understands itself as a community Sherry Lee Linkon and John Russo have forged a historical and cultural study of the relationship between community memory work and conflict. Complete Catalogue of Plays Dramatists Play Service, Inc, 2003 People be Heard Quincy Long, Michael Roth, 2005.
