The Judgment Of Paris:

The Judgment of Paris Hubert Damisch,1996-06-15 Drawing on Freudian theories of sexuality and Kant's conception of the beautiful French art historian Hubert Damisch considers artists as diverse as Raphael Picasso Watteau and Manet to demonstrate that beauty has always been connected to ideas of sexual difference and pleasure Damisch's tale begins with the judgment of Paris in which Paris awards Venus the golden apple and thus forever links beauty with desire The casting of this decision as a mistake in which desire is rewarded over wisdom and strength is then linked to theories of the unconscious and psychological drives In his quest for an exposition of the beautiful in its relation to visual pleasure Damisch employs what he terms analytic iconology following the revisions and repetitions of the motif of the judgment through art history philosophy aesthetics and psychoanalysis This translation brings an important figure of the French art historical tradition to Anglo American audiences
