The Underneath:

The Underneath Kathi Appelt, 2012-07-24 There is nothing lonelier than a cat who has been loved at least for a while and then abandoned on the side of the road A calico cat about to have kittens hears the lonely howl of a chained up hound deep in the backwaters of the bayou She dares to find him in the forest and the hound dares to befriend this cat this feline this creature he is supposed to hate They are an unlikely pair about to become an unlikely family Ranger urges the cat to hide underneath the porch to raise her kittens there because Gar Face the man living inside the house will surely use them as alligator bait should he find them But they are safe in the Underneath as long as they stay in the Underneath Kittens however are notoriously curious creatures And one kitten s one moment of curiosity sets off a chain of events that is astonishing remarkable and enormous in its meaning For everyone who loves Sunder Shiloh and The Yearling for everyone who loves the haunting beauty of writers such as Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings Flannery O Connor and Carson McCullers Kathi Appelt spins a harrowing yet keenly sweet tale about the power of love and its opposite hate the fragility of happiness and the importance of making good on your promises

The Underneath of Things Mariane C. Ferme, 2001-09-14 Researched with unusual sensitivity original in approach illuminating beyond its immediate geographical and theoretical referents and written in a style that is both carefully crafted and eminently accessible this is the work of a remarkably talented observer and scholar Jane Guyer editor of Money Matters Instability Values and Social Payments in the Modern History of West African Communities former president of the African Studies Association The world is currently quite aware of Sierra Leone and its predicament and it needs this well informed and beautifully written account of what makes the country so wonderful despite its woes Ferme s work is truly transcendent capturing magnificently well some of the most important aspects of an otherwise difficult ethnographic case It is a truthful and honest piece of work based on a deep grasp of the ethnographer s craft Paul Richards author of Fighting for the Rain Forest War Youth and Resources in Sierra Leone Ferme is a true master in the magic of things She gives the study of secrecy new impetus by examining its history relating that history not only to discourse but also to material conditions She brilliantly shows how for Sierra Leone societies the celebration of ambiguity has been a way to live with permanent danger from the long history of slavery through the present civil war Peter Geschiere author of The Modernity of Witchcraft Politics and the Occult in Postcolonial Africa The Underneath of Things is a model of patience detailed observation and elegant writing a theoretically creative study that is keen to track and to disentangle the webs and flows of everyday life Achille Mbembe author of On the Postcolony
