The Unorthodox Corpse:

The Unorthodox Corpse Alan Yates, 1961      The Unorthodox Corpse Carter Brown, 1961      The Unorthodox Corpse / Death on the Downbeat / The Blonde Carter Brown, 2020-03-27 Al Wheeler was Carter Brown's most popular mystery series. These three novels from the late 1950s have been reprinted from their original Australian editions, the first two of which were revised for their original U.S. editions.

Carter Brown 05 Carter Brown, 2020-06 Chorine Makes a Killing Give my gaming house protection and the kick backs are all yours. In Chorine Makes a Killing, unorthodox cop Lieutenant Al Wheeler is fired from the Pine City police force and employed by Hammond Irvine Snooks, attorneys at law. As special investigator, his first case involves a big shot financier being held by the police for the murder of a chorus girl. Turns out the murder is just the tip of the iceberg, an iceberg that goes right to the top of the Pine City establishment.

The Unorthodox Corpse Maybe it was the greatest act any magician ever pulled, but when he can't make the body reappear, it's murder. In The Unorthodox Corpse, Al Wheeler is back in his old job and sent to cover a ceremony at a local girls school but walks into one of the strangest capers of his offbeat career. First, a hired magician turns into a corpse. Then a student is murdered in front of sixty witnesses. What sort of macabre magic is this? Sounds like another open and shut case for Pine City's most unorthodox cop.

An Unorthodox Corpse Carter Brown, 1970-03-01      Resourceful Reading Katherine Bode, Professor Robert Dixon, 2010-01-11 This collection provides the first comprehensive account of eResearch and the new empiricism as they are transforming the field of Australian literary studies in the twenty-first century.

Danni Gu Collection: Repeatedly Felled Danni Gu, Routledge International Handbook of Queer Death Studies Nina Lykke, Tara Mehrabi, Marietta Radomska, 2025-10-15 This Handbook aims to provide a comprehensive international cartography of Queer Death Studies, offering broad in-depth insights into the field and its emergence through tentacular transdisciplinary networking. Taking research and art-making on death, dying, mourning, and afterlife into new directions, it explores the multiple effects of contemporary necropolitics and the proliferation of death worlds during the current period of Earth's history: The Anthropocene or the Age of Man. Informed by queer, critical, posthumanist, decolonial, and feminist approaches, the Handbook presents a unique variety of both critical and affirmative reflections upon the world's intersecting necropowers and ethico-political potentials for social and environmental change. Contributors speculate on ways to reimagine life-death relations as vibrant entanglements. They also investigate modes of mourning differently resisting necropolitical regimes that deem human and non-human individuals and populations to be disposable and non-grievable when they differ too much from the normative modern subject Universal Man in terms of intersections of gender, racialisation, class, sexuality, embodiment, embraiment, geopolitical positioning, or species. A thought-provoking read, this Handbook is intended for broad global audiences of researchers, artists, teachers, students, death professionals, health careworkers, activists, and NGOs interested in tools to rethink and reimagine death, dying, mourning, and afterlife from intersections of queering, decolonising, posthumanising, and feminist perspectives     The Pornbroker CARTER BROWN,1972     Robert Louis Stevenson Reconsidered William B. Jones, Jr.,2015-10-02 Critical interest in Robert Louis Stevenson has never been greater New editions of the author s works from the poems to the travel writing from the Scottish novels to the South Seas tales are appearing During the year 2000 the sesquicentennial of RLS s birth three conferences were held in honor of the occasion and each entertained an international audience This collection of essays reflects the scope of Robert Louis Stevenson s achievement and the range of current critical response The first section contains four critical overviews that include an analysis of the Stevensonian imagination an assessment of the author s literary theory an examination of the coded significance of burial and reanimation in Stevenson s Wrong Box and other works and an examination of the use of both Scottish and South Seas islands in his fiction The second section contains three essays that examine the many faceted Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Other works An Inland Voyage A Child s Garden of Verses The Dynamiter The Master of Ballantrae and Prayers Written at Vailima are the subjects of the six essays in the third section Three essays on biography popular culture and personal response are in the fourth section     An Introduction to the Popular Religion and Folklore of Northern India William Crooke,1894     Ritual, Belief and the Dead in Early Modern Britain and Ireland Sarah Tarlow,2010-11-22 Drawing on archaeological historical theological scientific and folkloric sources Sarah Tarlow s interdisciplinary study examines belief as it relates to the dead body in early modern Britain and Ireland From the theological discussion of bodily resurrection to the folkloric use of body parts as remedies and from the judicial punishment of the corpse to the ceremonial interment of the social elite this book discusses how seemingly incompatible beliefs about the dead body existed in parallel through this tumultuous period This study which is the first to incorporate archaeological evidence of early modern death and burial from across Britain and Ireland addresses new questions about the materiality of death what the dead body means and how its physical substance could be attributed with sentience and even agency It provides a sophisticated original interpretive framework for the growing quantities of archaeological and historical evidence about mortuary beliefs and practices in early modernity

Cruising with Robert Louis Stevenson Oliver S. Buckton,2007 Cruising with Robert Louis Stevenson Travel Narrative and the Colonial Body is the first book length study about the influence of travel on Robert Louis Stevenson s writings both fiction and nonfiction Within the contexts of late Victorian imperialism and ethnographic discourse the book offers original close readings of individual works by Stevenson while bringing new theoretical insights to bear on the relationship between travel authorship and gender identity in the Victorian fin de si cle Oliver S Buckton develops cruising as a critical term linking Stevenson s leisurely mode of travel with the striking narrative motifs of disruption and fragmentation that characterize his writings Buckton traces the development of Stevenson s career from his early travel books to show how Stevenson s major works of fiction such as Treasure Island Kidnapped and The Ebb Tide draw on innovative techniques and materials Stevenson acquired in the course of his global travels Exploring Stevenson s pivotal role in the revival of romance in the late nineteenth century Cruising with Robert Louis Stevenson highlights Stevenson s treatment of the human body as part of his resistance to realism arguing that the energies and desires released by travel are often routed through disturbingly resistant or darkly comic corporeal figures Buckton gives extensive attention to Stevenson s writing about the South Seas arguing that his groundbreaking critiques of European colonialism are formed in awareness of the fragility and desirability of Polynesian bodies and island landscapes Cruising with Robert Louis Stevenson will be indispensable to all admirers of Stevenson as well as of great interest to readers of travel writing Victorian ethnography gender studies and literary criticism
