Writing Imagined Diasporas Joel Kuortti, 2007 Joel Kuortti TM s Writing Imagined Diasporas South Asian Women Reshaping North American Identity is a study of diasporic South Asian women writers It argues that the diasporic South Asians are not merely assimilating to their host cultures but they are also actively reshaping them through their own new voices bringing new definitions of identity As diaspora does not emerge as a mere sociological fact but it becomes what it is because it is said to be what it is the writings of imagined diasporas challenge oenational discourses Diaspora brings to mind various contested ideas and images It can be a positive site for the affirmation of an identity or conversely a negative site of fears of losing that identity Diaspora signals an engagement with a matrix of diversity of cultures languages histories people places times What distinguishes diaspora from some other types of travel is its centripetal dimension It does not only mean that people are dispersed in different places but that they congregate in other places forming new communities In such gatherings new allegiances are forged that supplant earlier commitments New imagined communities arise that not simply substitute old ones but form a hybrid space in between various identifications This book looks into the ways in which diasporic Indian literature handles these issues In the context of diaspora there is an imaginative construction of collective identity in the making That a given diaspora comes to be seen as a community is the result of a process of imagining at the same time creating new marginalities hybridities and dependencies resulting in multiple marginalizations hyphenizations and demands for allegiance The study concentrates on eleven contemporary women writers from the United States and Canada who write on South Asian diasporic experiences The writers are Ramabai Espinet Jhumpa Lahiri Amulya Malladi Sujata Massey Bharati Mukherjee Uma Parameswaran Kirin Narayan Anita Rau Badami Robbie Clipper Sethi Shauna Singh Baldwin and Vineeta Vijayaraghavan
