Stunning The portrait of the embattled and unyielding president that emerges is vivid and memorable Publishers Weekly By 1968 the United States had committed over 525 000 men to Vietnam and bombed virtually all military targets recommended by the joint Chiefs of Staff Yet the United States was no closer to securing its objectives than it had been prior to the Americanization of the war The long promised light at the end of the tunnel was a mirage This absorbing account reveals the bankruptcy of the bombing campaign against North Vietnam the failures of political reform in South Vietnam and the bitter bureaucratic conflicts between the US government and its military commanders
