Ebook Sustainable Travel:

Slow Travel and Tourism Janet Dickinson, Les Lumsdon, 2010-09-23 It is widely recognized that travel and tourism can have a high environmental impact and make a major contribution to climate change. It is therefore vital that ways to reduce these impacts are developed and implemented. Slow travel provides such a concept drawing on ideas from the slow food movement with a concern for locality, ecology and quality of life. The aim of this book is to define slow travel and to discuss how some underlining values are likely to pervade new forms of sustainable development. It also aims to provide insights into the travel experience these are explored in several chapters which bring new knowledge about sustainable transport tourism from across the world. In order to do this the book explores the concept of slow travel and sets out its core ingredients comparing it with related frameworks such as low carbon tourism and sustainable tourism development. The authors explain slow travel as holiday travel where air and car transport is rejected in favour of more environmentally benign forms of overland transport which generally take much longer and become incorporated as part of the holiday experience. The book critically examines the key trends in tourism transport and recent climate change debates setting out the main issues facing tourism planners. It reviews the potential for new consumption patterns as well as current business models that facilitate hyper mobility. This provides a cutting edge critique of the upstream drivers to unsustainable tourism. Finally the authors illustrate their approach through a series of case studies from around the world featuring travel by train, bus, cycling and walking. Examples are drawn from Europe, Asia, Australia and the Americas. Cases include the Eurostar train as an alternative to air travel, walking in the Appalachian Trail US, the Euro Velo network of long distance cycling routes, canoe tours on the Gudena River in Denmark, sea kayaking in British Columbia, Canada and the Oz Bus Europe to Australia.

The Development of Sustainable Tourism Lars Aronsson, 2000 Sustainable tourism or tourism that respects the environment is one of the most hotly debated issues in today's study of travel. Based on years of research and extensive case studies, this book examines groundbreaking Scandinavian projects from award winning travel firms. Lars Aronsson then poses these projects as models for tourism in other regions of the world and for the future of sustainable tourism.

Sustainable Tourism Carol Patterson, 2015 Turn your dream of launching and running a sustainable tourism business into reality. This step by step guide will help you prepare and implement a business plan, anticipate and solve the complex sustainability challenges ahead and stack the odds of success in your favor.

Sustainable Tourism Rebecca Hawkins, Victor T.C. Middleton, 2009-11-03 Looking ahead to the 21st century Sustainable Tourism explains the current thinking process that underlies the emerging international principles of more sustainable development in travel and tourism. Using international illustrations it draws on experience and good practice as they are being increasingly applied around the world in the late 1990s. In sharp contrast to the problem analysis approach adopted by so many authors to this subject, this book is focused on the pro-active role the private sector industry can play in partnership with the public sector to achieve solutions through its day to day operations.

and marketing especially in product enhancement and quality controls Case material contributed by senior professionals in the industry include Kruger National Park South Africa Quicksilver Connections Barrier Reef Australia Edinburgh s Old Town UK Ironbridge Gorge Museum UK Rutland Water UK Industry illustrations are drawn from British Airways Grecotel Inter Continental Hotels and Resorts the International Federation of Tour Operators P O and TUI Professor Victor Middleton has had some thirty years international experience of marketing practice covering most of the private and public sectors of travel and tourism He holds appointments as Visiting Professor at Oxford Brookes University and University of Central Lancashire Dr Rebecca Hawkins runs her own business specialising in environmental aspects of tourism projects and has undertaken a number of pioneering programmes in this role She was Deputy Director of the World Travel and Tourism Environment Research Centre at Oxford Brookes University where she worked with Victor Middleton
