Space Place And Gender:

Space, Place, and Gender Doreen B. Massey, 1994 Massey has organized these debates around the three themes of space place and gender Spaces and Places in Motion Nicole Schröder, 2006 Women, Education and the Self M. Tamboukou, 2003-09-09 Maria Tamboukou links Foucauldian ideas to feminism and education Its central argument is that the Foucauldian notion of technologies of the self needs to be gendered and contextualized This argument is pursued through a genealogical analysis of autobiographical texts of women educators in the UK at the turn of the nineteenth century This is a new theoretical approach since Foucault s work has proved to be of great interest to feminist scholars but as yet his theories have only intermittently been used in educational feminist work Discourse and Narrative Methods Mona Livholts, Maria Tamboukou, 2015-04-14 Discourses and narratives are crucial in how we understand a world of rapid changes This textbook constitutes a unique introduction to two major influential theoretical and methodological fields discourse and narrative methods and examines them in their interrelation It offers readers an orientation within the broad and contested area of discourse and narrative methods and develops concrete analytical strategies to those who wish to explore both or one of these fields as well as their overlaps Illustrated with examples from real life and real research this book Maps the theoretical influence from poststructuralist postmodern postcolonial and feminist ideas on the field of discourse and narrative Acts as a guide to the most central analytical approaches in discourse and narrative studies supported by concrete examples of analytical strategies Presents a variety of oral textual visual and other data for the purpose of analyzing discourse and narrative Offers deeper insight into discourse and narrative methods within three themes of crucial importance for changing global context media and society gender and space and autobiography and life writing Acts as a helpful guide to situated writing based on concrete workshop exercises which promotes ethical reflexivity analytical thinking and creative engagement in the study of discourses and narratives Gender, Ethnicity and Space Elizabeth Ann Lorenz-Meyer, 2006 Gendered Spaces in Argentine Women's Literature M. Sierra, 2012-05-07 Addressing the issue of how gendered spatial relations impact the production of literary works this book discusses gender implications of spatial categories the notions of home and away placement and displacement dwelling and travel location and dislocation and the quest for place in women s writing from Argentina from 1920 to the present Contested Spaces in Contemporary North American Novels Şemsettin Tabur, 2018-09-30 This volume investigates the ways in which Toni Morrison s A Mercy Dionne Brand s In Another Place Not Here Jhumpa Lahiri s The Namesake and Carolyn See s There Will Never Be Another You engage with the physical ideological and socially constructed real and imagined spaces of colonialism justice diaspora and risk Building on a range of theoretical approaches to the production of space this study argues for the significance of literature as a cartographic practice charting the intricacies of the socio spatiality of human life Through rigorous readings this book examines each novel as a critical map that both represents and explores contested spaces and alternative spatial negotiations These spatially oriented literary analyses contribute to recent conceptualizations of space as socially and relationally produced open dynamic and contested and enrich the existing scholarship on the novels discussed here

Mapping LGBTQ Spaces and Places Marianne Blidon, Stanley D. Brunn, 2022-07-11 This book addresses LGBTQ issues in relation to among others law and policy mobility and migration children and family social well being and identity visible and invisible landscapes teaching and instruction parades arts and cartography and mapping A variety of research methods are used to explore identities communities networks and landscapes all which can be used in subsequent research and classroom instruction and disciplinary and interdisciplinary levels This extensive book stimulates future pioneering research ventures in rural and urban settings about existing and proposed LGBTQ policies individual and group mapping visible and invisible spaces and the construction of public and private spaces Through the methodologies and rich bibliographies this book provides a rich source for future comparative research of scholars working in social work NGOs and public policy and community networking and development

Imagining the Modern City James Donald, 1999 Paris Berlin London Singapore New York Chicago Los Angeles these define the city in the world s consciousness James Donald takes us on a psychic journey to these places that have inspired artists writers architects and filmmakers for centuries Considering the cultural and political implications of the urban imaginary Donald explores the pleasures and challenges of modern living contending that the imagined city remains the best lens for a future of democratic community How can we think of Chicago without recalling the grittiness of The Asphalt Jungle s back alleys or of London without the dank foggy atmosphere so often evoked by Dickens When de Certeau explores what it means to walk through a city or Foucault dissects the elements of the modern attitude what are they telling us about modernity itself Through a discussion of these and many other questions about urban thought Donald demonstrates how artists and social critics have seen the city as the locus not just of vanity squalor and injustice but also of civilized society s highest aspirations Imagining the modern City also looks at how artists have shaped cities through their creation of public spaces sculpture and architecture art forms that help determine our ideas about our place in the urban environment Planners and architects such as Otto Wagner Le Corbusier and Bernard Tschumi present us with real and possible cities showing a way forward to alternative social futures Donald asserts The modern city provides both a culturally resonant imagined space and a physical place for the everyday life of its residents Imagining the Modern City is a rich and dazzling exploration of the ways cities stir and shape our consciousness

Seeing Nature Through Gender Virginia Scharff, 2003 Environmental history has traditionally told the story of Man and Nature Scholars have too frequently overlooked the ways in which their predominantly male subjects have themselves been shaped by gender Seeing Nature through Gender here reintroduces gender as a meaningful category of analysis for environmental history showing how women s actions desires and choices have shaped the world and seeing men as gendered actors as well In thirteen essays that show how gendered ideas have shaped the ways in which people have represented experienced and consumed their world Virginia Scharff and her coauthors explore interactions between gender and environment in history Ranging from colonial borderlands to transnational boundaries from mountaintop to marketplace they focus on historical representations of humans and nature on questions about consumption on environmental politics and on the complex reciprocal relations among human bodies and changing landscapes They also challenge the ecofeminist position by challenging the notion that men and women are essentially different creatures with biologically different destinies Each article shows how a person or group of people in history have understood nature in gendered terms and acted accordingly often with dire consequences for other people and organisms Here are considerations of the ways we study sexuality among birds of William Byrd s masking sexual encounters in his account of an eighteenth century expedition of how the ecology of fire in a changing built environment has reshaped firefighters own gendered identities Some are playful as in a piece on the evolution of snow bunnies to shred betties Others are dead serious as in a chilling portrait of how endocrine disrupters are reinventing humans animals and water systems from the cellular level out Aiding and adding significantly to the enterprise of environmental history Seeing Nature through Gender bridges gender history and environmental history in unexpected ways to show us how the natural world can remake the gendered patterns we ve engraved on ourselves and on the planet
