Spanish Apocalypse The Morgan Beatus Manuscript:

A Spanish Apocalypse, 1991 Superbly reproduced here in pages that photographically duplicate the vivid colorful leaves of the original work the medieval manuscript known as the Morgan Beatus is the illustrated Commentary on the Apocalypse of St John coupled with St Jerome's Commentary on Daniel which is customarily appended to it The work was first compiled in the 8th century by the Spanish monk Beatus of Li bana and has been preserved at the Pierpont Morgan Library in New York since 1919 All 131 of the exquisite illustrations and illuminations are presented along with their Latin text and the volume provides substantial commentary on the manuscript

The Book of Revelation and Its Interpreters Ian Boxall, Richard Tresley, 2015-11-25 The Book of Revelation has fired the imaginations of theologians preachers artists and ordinary Christians across the centuries The resulting number of commentaries on the book is enormous and most studies can only touch upon at most a representative sample of this vast literature As a consequence many focus largely on the interpretation of the Apocalypse only within specific periods such as the patristic period or during the Reformation One result of this severe limitation given the vast literary corpus is how historical interpretations in critical commentaries of the Book of Revelations tend to prioritize authors from the modern period In The Book of Revelation and Its Interpreters Short Studies and an Annotated Bibliography editors Richard Tresley and Ian Boxall fill a significant gap in the scholarly literature At its heart is an extensive annotated bibliography covering commentaries on the book up to 1700 including most of the early illuminated Apocalypses Supporting the presentation of this survey of the historical interpretations of the Book of Revelation is an extended overview of Revelation's often colorful reception history by Christopher Rowland together with a number of short studies on various aspects of the book These include discussions of specific commentators such as Sean Michael Ryan's look at Tyconius and Francis X Gumerlock's exploration of Chromatius of Aquileia alongside a more general treatment of Revelation's impact on the figure of John of Patmos in an essay by Ian Boxall and the visual reception of Revelation in Natasha O Hear's article The Book of Revelation and Its Interpreters provides a valuable bibliographical resource for those working in the field of Biblical Studies history of Christianity eschatology and apocalyptic studies The accompanying essays orient the authors recorded in the bibliography within a larger context offering specific examples of the Apocalypse's capacity to speak in fresh and often surprising ways to diverse audiences throughout history
