The Diplomats:

At Home with the Diplomats Iver B. Neumann, 2012-08-15 The 2010 WikiLeaks release of 250 000 U S diplomatic cables has made it eminently clear that there is a vast gulf between the public face of diplomacy and the opinions and actions that take place behind embassy doors In At Home with the Diplomats Iver B Neumann offers unprecedented access to the inner workings of a foreign ministry Neumann worked for several years at the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs where he had an up close view of how diplomats conduct their business and how they perceive their own practices In this book he shows us how diplomacy is conducted on a day to day basis Approaching contemporary diplomacy from an anthropological perspective Neumann examines the various aspects of diplomatic work and practice including immunity permanent representation diplomatic sociability accreditation and issues of gender equality Neumann shows that the diplomat working abroad and the diplomat at home are engaged in two different modes of knowledge production Diplomats in the field focus primarily on gathering and processing information In contrast the diplomat based in his or her home capital is caught up in the seemingly endless production of texts reports speeches position papers and the like Neumann leaves the reader with a keen sense of the practices of diplomacy relations with foreign ministries mediating between other people s positions while integrating personal and professional into a cohesive whole adherence to compulsory routines and agendas and above all the generation of knowledge Yet even as they come to master such quotidian tasks diplomats are regularly called upon to do exceptional things such as negotiating peace

The Diplomats Geoffrey Moorhouse, 1977 The author describes the culture operations and procedures of the British Foreign and Commonwealth Office having been given access to report from the inside in 1974

The Dative Willy Van Langendonck, William Van Belle, 1998-09-15 This book is the second part of a two volume reader on the Dative In the first part which appeared in 1996 eleven papers were presented providing a syntactic and semantic description of the category Dative in eleven languages The aim of this second part is to discuss several aspects of the Dative in greater detail It contains eight papers dealing with theoretical considerations on dativity as well as with contrastive typological and diachronic issues A major concern is the relation between form case grammatical relation and meaning semantic roles or other kinds of meaning Most contributions in this volume represent cognitive and functional views or a critical discussion of them As in the first volume the linguistic material mainly stems from Germanic and Romance languages Contemporary English is the basis for Davidse s theoretical claims Pasicki studies the dative in Old English Dutch appears especially in Geeraerts semantic analysis but also in the papers by Draye Lamiroy Delbecque and Van Langendonck Draye Lamiroy Delbecque and Melis also take German into consideration Latin is dealt with by Melis and Van Langendonck Modern Romance languages especially French provide further data for Melis and Lamiroy Delbecque Finally Newman adduces a variety of languages for his typological analyses
