The Diving Eagle:

The Diving Eagle P. W. Stahl, 1984-01-01 Birds and Beasts of Ancient Mesoamerica Susan Milbrath, Elizabeth Baquedano, 2023-12-15 Birds and Beasts of Ancient Mesoamerica links Precolumbian animal imagery with scientific data related to animal morphology and behavior providing in depth studies of the symbolic importance of animals and birds in Postclassic period Mesoamerica Representations of animal deities in Mesoamerica can be traced back at least to Middle Preclassic Olmec murals stone carvings and portable art such as lapidary work and ceramics Throughout the history of Mesoamerica real animals were merged with fantastical creatures creating zoological oddities not unlike medieval European bestiaries According to Spanish chroniclers the Aztec emperor was known to keep exotic animals in royal aviaries and zoos The Postclassic period was characterized by an iconography that was shared from central Mexico to the Yucatan peninsula and south to Belize In addition to highlighting the symbolic importance of nonhuman creatures in general this volume focuses on the importance of the calendrical and astronomical symbolism associated with animals and birds Inspired by and dedicated to the work of Mesoamerican scholar Cecelia Klein and featuring imagery from painted books monumental sculpture portable arts and archaeological evidence from the field of zooarchaeology Birds and Beasts of Ancient Mesoamerica highlights the significance of the animal world in Postclassic and early colonial Mesoamerica It will be important to students and scholars studying Mesoamerican art history archaeology ethnohistory and zoology The Eagle Magazine ,1926 The Last Eagle Daniel Mannix, 2013-11-21 A baby bald eagle is raised by attentive parents in a tall tree overlooking the Chesapeake Bay A story overflowing with eagle facts and information feathered with humor and nested in a commentary on the fate of the bald eagle in North America Yesterday'S Reflections Albert F. Schmid, 2013-02-22 In Yesterdays Reflections author Albert F Schmid invites us to consider the various holidays that are celebrated throughout the year He provides interesting facts about each holiday and includes the religious origins of them where relevant because many of our holidays have a religious connection He also explains important points about the holidays such as why Easter is always on a Sunday and why Thanksgiving is always on the fourth Thursday in November In addition he includes devotionals on topics ranging from Contentment to God Is Where Love Is Each devotional includes the pertinent Scriptures a story to illustrate the point being made and Schmid's comments For example The Rear View Mirror tells the story of Grace who remembers her father's advice for driving in the snow find a snow plow and follow it When she encounters a blizzard she does this an hour later the driver stops to make certain she is all right as he had plowed a large parking lot was moving on to the next business and was concerned when he noticed that she was following him We often become comfortable thinking that we can just follow the snow plow when in truth we need to learn to trust God and let Him lead the way Yesterdays Reflections is an inspiring collection that reminds us that we are Christ's ambassadors and that God expects each of us to live and act as though He is making His appeal through us The best sermons are not preached they are lived Imagining the Human Condition in Medieval Rome Kristin B. Aavitsland, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on the Vita Humana cycle at Tre Fontane this book includes an overview of the medieval history of the Roman Cistercian abbey and its architecture as well as a consideration of the political and cultural standing of the abbey both within Papal Rome and within the Cistercian order Furthermore it considers the commission of the fresco cycle the circumstances of its making and its position within the art historical context of the Roman Duecento Examining the unusual blend of images in the Vita Humana cycle this study offers a more nuanced picture of the iconographic repertoire of medieval art Since the discovery of the frescoes in the 1960s the iconographic programme of the cycle has remained mysterious and an adequate analysis of the Vita Humana cycle as a whole has so far been lacking Kristin B Aavitsland covers this gap in the scholarship on Roman art circa 1300 and also presents the first interpretative discussion of the frescoes that is up to date with the architectural investigations undertaken in the monastery around 2000 Aavitsland proposes a rationale behind the conception of the fresco cycle thereby providing a key for understanding its iconography and shedding new light on thirteenth century Cistercian culture
