The Dingo 4:

The Dingo's Got My Baby Lindy Chamberlain-Creighton, 2012-03-10 In 1980 nine week old Azaria Chamberlain was taken by a dingo from her family's tent near Uluru in Australia's remote Northern Territory Her body was never found In a terrible miscarriage of justice her mother Lindy was wrongfully convicted of her daughter's murder and sentenced to life in prison It was seven years before the conviction was overturned This is the true story behind a tragedy whose echoes reverberated around the world This is the story of a little girl who lived and breathed and loved and was loved She was part of me She grew within my body and when she died part of me died and nothing will ever alter that fact This is her story and mine Lindy Chamberlain Creighton Page after page demolishes the myth and fables that have been spun around a nation's obsession with the baby's disappearance The Sydney Morning Herald What first struck me on meeting Lindy was her sense of humour and surprising lack of bitterness Here is a woman who has been under such macabre and intense public scrutiny and yet through all the tabloid hysteria they haven't managed to capture the real Lindy at all There are so many myths about Lindy and the Chamberlain case that have still not been dispelled and to read this book is to get closer to the truth behind the story that has continued to fascinate Australia for the past 24 years Miranda Otto Actress Lord of the Rings Trilogy Previously published as Through My Eyes in 2004

Our Oldest Companions Pat Shipman, 2021-11-02 The unique relationship between dogs and humans has had huge evolutionary consequences changing the physical behavioral genetic and emotional characteristics of both species Pat Shipman looks to fossil records and new evidence to trace how the process of domestication worked and discovers how much of ourselves we owe to our canine companions
