Nurturing Innovation Pocketbook Douglas Miller,2015-09-16 Innovation is the life blood of all enterprises public and private Their competitiveness depends upon it Those that succeed recognise that all of their people are inherently creative and by proper management can both release and manage that creativity for the ultimate benefit of all stakeholders The Nurturing Innovation Pocketbook explains how managers can create an environment in which innovation thrives It identifies the numerous barriers to innovation organisational and self imposed by individuals and describes how through positive intervention these blocks can be cast aside All innovation comes with a degree of risk To manage the process successfully the manager must determine the required level of innovation four are described in the book from incremental to transformational and assess the associated risk The manager must also be supportive of his team acting as advisor coach promoter sounding board resource provider and defender when ideas don t work out Nurture not stifle is author Doug Miller s message

Shared Governance John Edmonstone,2003-03-04 There are three major audiences for this book The first is made is of National Health Service Trust Chief Executives Nurse Directors Medical Directors Human Resource Directors and also leaders of Workforce Development Confederations in England and regional Workforce Development Groups in Scotland The onus is firmly on them in the early years of the 21st century to resource develop and progress the empowerment of front line clinical staff in health care organisations and to enable devolved decision making processes much closer to the patient Shared Governance offers a proven and practical means of making that happen and this book should give them some robust tools to take this forward The second audience are those people within NHS Trusts who are concerned with Clinical Governance on a day to day basis The best guarantee of the quality of health care probably does not lie in a regime of inspections assessments appraisals and reviews although they do have their place but instead with clinical professionals regularly and systematically reviewing their practice and seeking to improve it Shared Governance provides a pragmatic framework within which that process can take place and a means of actively involving the big battalions of clinical staff The third and final audience are the Shared Governance Co ordinators and the Chairs Deputy Chairs and Secretaries of Shared Governance councils They are the poor bloody infantry of Shared Governance and the difference between its success or failure For them this publication is intended to be a helpful compendium or source book from which they can draw and adapt material to suit their own local circumstances in as flexible a manner as possible

The Rough Guide to Surviving the End of the World Rough Guides,2012-08-16 The Rough Guide to Surviving the End of the World is a light hearted yet well informed look at threats to the very existence of life on Earth how we might be able to deal with them and if things go truly horribly wrong how we might just be able to survive Written by scientist and sci fan Paul Parsons this gripping book examines scenarios ranging from megafloods to space radiation supervolcanoes to bioengineering and what you should do when the sh t hits the fan Along the way we meet some of the lesser trodden paths to oblivion including the possibility that the human race will be gripped by mass stupidity and the outrageous idea that life on Earth could all be one giant Matrix style computer simulation that its creators might one day decide to switch off All are placed under the scientific spotlight and presented with clarity and humor To survive Armageddon you need the best advice and information available which is here presented in ample detail and capturing every plausible catastrophic scenario Now available in ePub format

Five: "Elegy" Wayne Kyle Spitzer, 2020-07-06 That's when I heard the strange sound a kind of forlorn mewing like the note of a horn being drug out too long coming from just around the corner just beyond the liquor store and paused holding up my hand What What's going on I waved her into silence dropping the rein then hustled to the edge of the building where after peeking around the corner I saw a juvenile sauropod of the Diplodocus family meaning it was the size of a typical school bus collapsed in the middle of the street its right front leg stuck in a manhole What is it What do you see I looked from the sauropod to the corner of a nearby building where something had moved then across the street to an overgrown alley Yes I thought There And there Between the tattoo parlor and the marijuana dispensary Allosaurs I said gravely An entire pack of them In desert camouflage They they've got something trapped Omigod It it's not your dog is it I returned and picked up the rein began leading Blucifer forward into the intersection No Wait what are you We're going through I said But what if those things They don't care about us they want the bigger game For now Just hold on The horse's hooves went clip clop clip clop as we passed the bluish gray sauropod coming into full view A moment later she said It it's stuck In the manhole Do you see that I eyed the predators warily continuing to lead There's nothing we can do about it But she'll be helpless against That is the way of it I insisted The way of the Look would you stop with the Indian clap trap I'm not even sure There was a thwomp as the allosaur by the building leapt into the road not by us but about fifty feet away near the sauropod Jesus can't you do anything What about your bow And risk bringing them down on us I intensified our pace sprinting toward the Stratosphere No And then they were coming the allosaurs from across the street passing so close we could smell the meat on their breath closing in on the frightened herbivore until we passed the scene completely and sought refuge in a nearby gas station its storefront had long since collapsed and gathered there trembling as the sauropod cried out for it wouldn't be long now until they fell upon her Jesus said Essie listening What a world Yes I said remembering My father used to say it had a demonic sublime every tree and every rock every animal including man down to the lowest insect I listened as the sauropod moaned seeming already to give up to resign its fate And yet What do you mean What You said and yet What did you mean I unshouldered the compound bow rubbing my aching deltoid stretching my arm Nothing It's just that maybe it doesn't have to be this way When she didn't respond I looked at her found her already looking at me calmly meditatively her eyes seeming to glimmer I'm sure I don't know what you mean I mean that I could end it Her confusion and terror That I could prevent her from suffering I looked at the bow and the dark poisoned bolts attached to it That it's in my hands to do so
