The Doomsday Trail Ray Hogan, 1984      The Politics of the Trail Oded Löwenheim, 2014-05-14 Each day as Oded Löwenheim commutes by mountain bike along dirt trails and wadis in the hills of Jerusalem to Hebrew University he feels a strong emotional connection to his surroundings But for him this connection also generates paradoxically feelings and emotions of confusion and estrangement In The Politics of the Trail Löwenheim confronts this tension by focusing on his encounters with three places along the trail the separation fence between Israel and the Palestinians the ruins of the Palestinian village Qalunya demolished in 1948 and the trail connecting the largest 9 11 memorial site outside of the U S with a top secret nuclear proof bunker for the Israeli cabinet He shares the stories of the people he meets along the way and considers how his own subjectivity is shaped by the landscape and culture of conflict Moreover he deconstructs challenges and resists the concepts and institutions that constitute such a culture and invites conversation about the idea of conflict as a culture
