Henry Moore, Smithsonian Institution

The Drawings Of Henry Moore:

The Drawings of Henry Moore Henry Moore, 1946 The Drawings of Henry Moore, 1977 Henry Moore: Complete Drawings, 1950-1976 Henry Moore, 1994-04 This volume in the complete catalogue of Henry Moore's drawings covers the period 1950 to 1976 Its publication marks the completion of the chronological catalogue of Moore's drawings sculpture he nevertheless found time to experiment with different media drawing with felt tipped pens and brush and ink on tissue paper laid down on normal weight drawing paper for example He also painted on blotting paper using random offset patches of watercolour as a starting point for his imagination which never faltered despite the increasing physical frailty which beset him during the 1970s as his 80th birthday approached accompanying illustrations Its compilation has been a research challenge in the course of the 26 years covered by this volume Moore used many notebooks some large some very small some begun in one year and then laid aside forgotten or indeed mislaid until the artist took them up again several years later When exhibitions were planned or dealers requested drawings Moore would tear pages out of the notebooks and these were often only minimally catalogued before being sold on to galleries or collectors around the world The considerable research work which has gone into establishing the chronology and media of the drawings in this volume should therefore be welcomed by Moore scholars worldwide

Henry Moore Henry Moore, 2003 This seventh and final volume in the complete catalog of Henry Moore's drawings is an essential key to the material contained in the other six volumes It provides a consolidated version of all the reference apparatus contained in each of the other volumes index concordance and list of exhibitions enabling the user to track down any particular drawing from any period or volume by means of its title HMF or AG number In addition this volume includes a list of Addenda and Corrigenda relating to information that has come to light since this series was launched in 1994 Some 150 items are included in this section The opportunity has also been seized to catalog about 600 previously unpublished drawings produced by Moore in the last two years of his life 1984-86 and held in the archives of the Henry Moore Foundation About fifty of these are illustrated and give a flavor of the fine quality of the artist's output even as he approached the end of his life

Sculptures and Drawings by Henry Moore Henry Moore, Smithsonian Institution, 1968 Henry Moore Henry Moore, Lund Humphries, Henry Moore Foundation, 1996 This volume journeys back to the earliest days of Moore's career reproducing around 1000 drawings from the period 1916-29 including five of his early notebooks

Henry Moore Ann Garrould, Henry Moore, 1988 This survey covers every aspect of Moore's drawings from his school and student days in Yorkshire and London until shortly before his death Moore's niece provides an introductory account of the artist's life and her selection of over 300 drawings

Henry Moore: Unpublished Drawings Henry Moore, David Mitchinson, 1972 In the work of every great artist there is an area that his public seldom sees the notes jottings and drawings that contain his finished creations in embryo These preparatory works are of the utmost importance to the study of art history since they are often the key to the evolution of a work of art indicating how a particular artists vision is translated from germinal idea to final form In the case of Henry Moore one of the great sculptors of our time the discovery of more than 200 of his hitherto unpublished drawings is an exciting event not only for its historical significance but for the aesthetic joy the drawings evoke Many of the sketches taken from comprehensive notebooks and sketchbooks dating from 1921 to 1970 will delight the viewer with their independence as finished graphic statements for Moore experimented extensively with ink pencil crayon chalk wash and watercolor alone and in innovative combinations But it is ultimately Moores purpose for these drawings that both fascinates and overwhelms us here are the worksheets of his artistic vision the raw material from which evolved the Mother and Child sculptures the Reclining Figures and the Family Groups Wherever possible the sculptors written notations to the sketches have been included since they afford a still deeper understanding of Moores intense involvement with his subjects David Mitchinsons text adds a historical framework for the drawings relating them to trends in Moores art and to specific finished sculptures thus extending the exploration of Moores creative process so provocatively invited by the drawings themselves
