Totemism and Exogamy James George Frazer, 2010-01-31 This classic four volume series from a pioneering ethnographer first published in 1910 remains a foundational work of comparative mythology and religion for scholars and armchair anthropologists alike. Exploring the interconnections between myth and ritual in how and whom we may marry as group marriage gave way to individual marriage questions about religion and social structure became intertwined. In any case, this is a fascinating look at the social underpinnings common to all peoples around the globe. Volume III continues Frazer's ethnographic survey of totemism here covering totemism in the United States, Canada, and Central and South America with a special emphasis on the guardian spirits and secret societies of American Indian tribes.

Scottish anthropologist SIR JAMES GEORGE FRAZER 1854-1941 also wrote the classic The Golden Bough 1890, Man, God, and Immortality 1927, and Creation and Evolution in Primitive Cosmogonies 1935.

Dating Beowulf Daniel C. Remein, Erica Weaver, 2019-12-20. Featuring essays from some of the most prominent voices in early medieval studies, Dating Beowulf playfully redeploys the word "dating" which usually heralds some of the most divisive critical impasses in the field to provocatively phrase a set of new relationships with an Old English poem. The volume argues for the relevance of the early Middle Ages to affect studies and vice versa, offering a riposte to antifeminist discourse and opening avenues for future work by specialists in the history of emotions, literary theorists, students of Old English literature, and medieval scholars alike. To this end, the essays embody a range of critical approaches from queer theory to animal studies and ecocriticism to actor network theory.
