Biennial of the General Federation of Women's Clubs General Federation of Women's Clubs, 1896 Psychology at Work in Asia Anila Kamal, Jas Laile Suzana Binti Jaafar, 2013-02-21 This book provides important information about the development of psychology as a discipline in Asia. Several research papers related to organizational psychology and the influence of psychology on quality of life in countries throughout Asia are included. The papers which appear herein were originally presented at the 3rd Convention of the Asian Psychological Association in Darwin Australia during July 2010, the 4th Convention of the Asian Psychological Association in Jakarta Indonesia during July 2012, and the International Conference on Industrial and Organizational Psychology at the National Institute of Psychology in Islamabad Pakistan during April 2012. The information presented here provides a valuable window into how psychology is taught and practiced throughout Asia, especially in the work place. Indigenous trends in research theory and application are provided by authors who are native to live and teach in the countries represented in the studies reported here. It is a must read not only for those in academic psychology and higher education but also for those in business who are affected by changes in globalization of business practices. Psychologists, counselors, educators, and those with research interests in social sciences and cross-cultural research will find a wealth of current information.
