Works by Lyons Israel Ellis Gray:

Lyons Israel Ellis Gray Neave Brown, Lyons Israel Ellis Gray, 1988 The work of Lyons Israel Ellis Gray was seen in the 1950s and 1960s as epitomizing a new optimistic and frankly modern approach to architecture known as brutalist The practice was responsible for the construction of some 25 schools institutes of higher education hospitals and housing projects and served as something of a finishing school for a generation of British architects including James Stirling James Gowan and Neave Brown Makers of 20th-Century Modern Architecture Donald Leslie Johnson, Donald Langmead, 2013-05-13 Makers of 20th Century Modern Architecture is an indispensable reference book for the scholar student architect or layman interested in the architects who initiated developed or advanced modern architecture The book is amply illustrated and features the most prominent and influential people in 20th century modernist architecture including Wright Eisenman Mies van der Rohe and Kahn It describes the milieu in which they practiced their art and directs readers to information on the life and creative activities of these founding architects and their disciples The profiles of individual architects include critical analysis of their major buildings and projects Each profile is completed by a comprehensive bibliography The Illustrated Encyclopedia of Architects and Architecture Dennis Sharp, 1991 The Alienation Effect Owen Hatherley, 2025-03-27 Dazzling The remarkable story of how British culture was transformed by migr architects filmmakers and writers Guardian Britain Made in Europe In the 1930s tens of thousands of central Europeans sought sanctuary from fascism in Britain While the rainy seemingly quaint island they discovered on arrival was a far cry from the dynamism of Weimar Berlin or Red Vienna it was safe and it became home Yet the migr s had not arrived alone they brought with them new and radical ideas and as they began to rebuild their lives and livelihoods they transformed the face of Britain forever Drawing on an immense cast of artists and intellectuals including celebrated figures like Erno Goldfinger forgotten luminaries like Ruth Glass and a host of larger than life visionaries and charlatans the historian Owen Hatherley argues that in the resulting clash between European modernism and British moderation our imaginations were fundamentally realigned and remade for the better In casting what Bertolt Brecht called in a new German word a Verfremdungseffekt an alienation effect on Britain the aliens made us all a little bit alien too Provocative entertaining and meticulously researched The Alienation Effect opens our eyes to the influence of the migr s all around us many of our most quintessentially British icons are the product of this culture clash and entreats us to remember and renew our proud national tradition of asylum Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 1975 Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel, 2016-01-23 Architecture Jonathan Hill, 2014-04-04 The aim of this book is to expand the subject and matter of architecture and to explore their interdependence There are now many architectures This book acknowledges architecture far beyond the familiar boundaries of the discipline and reassesses the object at its centre the building Architectural matter is not always physical or building fabric It is whatever architecture is made of whether words bricks blood cells sounds or pixels The fifteen chapters are divided into three sections on buildings spaces and bodies which each deal with a particular understanding of architecture and architectural matter The richness and diversity of subjects and materials discussed in this book locates architecture firmly in the world as a whole not just the domain of architects In stating that architecture is far more than the work of architects this book aims not to deny the importance of architects in the production of architecture but to see their role in more balanced terms and to acknowledge other architectural producers Architecture can for example be found in the incisions of a surgeon the instructions of a choreographer or the movements of a user Architecture can be made of anything and by anyone

Design Book Review ,1988 Architecture Series: Bibliography ,1989 The Idea of the City Architectural Association (Great Britain),1996 AA Files ,1998 New Publications for Architecture Libraries ,1989

Journal ,1988 Design & Applied Arts Index ,1989 The Architects' Journal ,1990 James Stirling James Frazer Stirling,2010 James Stirling 1924 1992 was arguably the most influential and controversial post war British architect Stirling e tm s reputation is based primarily on such seminal buildings as the Leicester University Engineering Building 1959 63 with James Gowan at one end of his career and the Neue Staatsgalerie Stuttgart 1977 83 with Michael Wilford at the other Although he denied both labels his work is seen as central to New Brutalism and Post Modernism and his buildings attracted commentary and theory from the leading architectural thinkers of the day including Frampton Tafuri Eisenman and Banham Despite his significance however there has been very little recent research or creative re interpretation of his work This fascinating insight into Stirling e tm s work presents previously unavailable writings by him as well as new research on his early career including The Black Notebook e the journal he kept in the mid 1950s the recorded talk he gave to the Team 10 group in 1962 as well as the discussion that followed that talk three sets of notes for lectures he gave an interview with Stirling and Gowan essays by the editor placing the texts in the context of Stirling e tm s early work and discussing Stirling e tm s relation to Le Corbusier Profusely illustrated with many photographs taken by Stirling himself this book gives fresh understanding of Stirling e tm s early career and the reasons why avant garde architecture in post war Britain became so widely influential outside the country

Blueprint ,1988 Contemporary Architects Ann Lee Morgan,Colin Naylor,1987

To strengthen the contemporary focus of this volume we have added about forty architects and have deleted some whose activity ceased before World War II In making these decisions we have been assisted by an Advisory Board As in the first volume we have continued to define the word architect very broadly so as to include planners theorists structural engineers and landscape architects whose work seems to be central to the enterprise of creating habitable spaces in our day Editor s note

Icons of Architecture Sabine Thiel-Siling,2005 An overview of twentieth century architecture featuring short essays on innovations in design and profiles of architects Includes photos drawings and building plans Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals Avery Library,1997
